Subject: Renewal Application

My name is Victor Camarillo Rosales. I'm business manager of Camarillo Taxi Cab L.L.C. Cab # 24. I'm writing this letter to object the findings of my renewal of my Public Passenger Vehicle License.

I was scheduled to appear in front of the Public Safety Committee on 12/5/2013. I did not attend. My daughter had moved out of the house and when she changed her address, all of the mail from everyone in the house was being sent to her new address so I didn't get the letter until after that date.

You have all my driving records, suspensions, e.t.c information. Last year my permit was suspended for 10 days which then became 20 days. When I went to renew my Public Passenger License again it was suspended again for 10 days which again became 20 days.

I have been working with the court system and was put on an installment plan. If I missed a payment or wasn't on time they would suspend my license. I have a tax lien against me so I can only have a certain amount of money in my account before the IRS takes it out. So when I wrote checks, they would bounce. I have been going through some financial hardships for the past two years.

September of 2013 I received 3 tickets in the mail.

1) Public Passenger Vehicle Permit
Required. Judgement: Voided per
Police officer Mary Sikora

2) Citation: R4417103- Posses
Fraudulently Obtained
Registration Sticker. Judgement:
Dismissed without Prejudice
Date: 12/03/2013

3) Citation: R4417114- Non-
Registration of Vehicle.
Judgement: dismissed without Prejudice

I no longer have any violations against me.

I would like to thank you for your help and time.

Sincerely,
Victor Camarillo - Rosales
