

Dan McCarthy

Since July, 2006 Dan McCarthy has been Towne Investment's Director of Urban Development. Towne Investments functions as a multi-faceted commercial real estate company whose activities include real estate management, consulting, leasing, sales, development, construction, and acquisitions. Towne Investments currently owns and manages a portfolio of over 5.5 million square feet of commercial property and 1,100 apartment units in Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Florida, and Nevada. Dan is currently focusing his efforts on the redevelopment of the former Pabst Brewery which sits on a 20 acre site on the northwest corner of downtown Milwaukee.

Prior to joining Towne Investment, Dan was a development professional with WISPARK LLC, the real estate development subsidiary of Wisconsin Energy Corporation. Dan also enjoyed a 23 year career in public service culminating in being named the City of Milwaukee's Urban Development Manager supervising a team of managers and support staff who were responsible for the City of Milwaukee's commercial development efforts. This occurred during a time of unprecedented investment in downtown Milwaukee and several neighborhood commercial districts.

Dan currently serves on the Board of Directors of The Milwaukee RiverWalk District, the Legacy Redevelopment Corporation and the Public Policy Forum. He is married to Jan M. McCarthy who is a Registered Nurse and an active volunteer at the Wisconsin Humane Society.
