Alderwoman Lewis,

Kiss has not been a problem lately and we have not had to meet with them since I've been assigned here at District 4. We will be meeting with them in the near future just to reiterate expectations and safety protocols. They were not over capacity.

My recommendation is to put them on notice via a meeting at District 4.

Thanks,
Heather

Hey Capt.,

Thanks for the information. So is there a recommendation for this club? Has this location been an issue as of late? Was this an over capacity issue as well?

All,

On Saturday night/Sunday morning Squad 4237 along with 4460 (PO SCHLICKE, PO HANSEN), 4440 (PO BEATTIE, PO MAJEED), 4484 (PO CONNELL) and 4210 (SGT PANFIL) were assigned to monitor the special event at Kiss Ultra Lounge (7330 N 76th Street) where Milwaukee famous rappers Gwapo Chapo, Loonie Baby, and other affiliates would be performing.

To start out the night the parking lot management was unorganized and caused multiple vehicles to stop on N 76th Street and at some points block all northbound traffic. This created an unsafe environment and officers on scene had to step in multiple times to conduct traffic and keep the road clear. Squads addressed the lot attendants and advised them multiple times that cars could not block the street, which continued to happen. There was only one attendant assigned to the lot entrance who was unable and unwilling to keep up with the amount of traffic flowing in.

At approximately 1:06 AM subjects exited the club and stated that there were shots being fired inside. The following is an excerpt from my report regarding:

"On Sunday, July 7, 2019, at approximately 1:06 AM, while monitoring Kiss Ultra Lounge, 7330 N 76th Street, City and County of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, I was made aware via radio broadcast that a subject was possibly inside of the club shooting, per citizens leaving the club.

I observed multiple subjects running from inside out of both north side exit doors. The subjects were exiting in an extremely unorganized manner, running over each other and falling to the ground. It was not possible to gain entry to the club immediately to clear the inside, as officers would likely have been trampled over by the crowd. It was apparent that multiple subjects were caused to fear for their safety and be alarmed due to the unknown actor's actions.

Once officers were able to safely gain entry we cleared the club and did not observe any victims or evidence of shots fired. Multiple subjects stated to police that they heard a single firework go off near the dance floor.

I interviewed Christopher J HILL who was in the DJ booth in the main dance room, where the alleged firework went off. The DJ booth at Kiss is elevated and provides a view overlooking the dance floor. HILL stated he observed what he believed was a firework lit in the crowd, and then heard a "pop". HILL stated he did not see any firearms, nor did he believe it was a gunshot."

Report was filed as a Disorderly Conduct with an unknown actor, as there was no evidence of gunfire. A licensed premise report was also filed. The club closed early for the night as a result of the incident.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Daering, Jason J 019708

05/11/2019

This report was written by PO Jason DAERING assigned to District 4, Late Power Shift, Squad 4485 with PO Shane BISHOP. On 5-11-19 at 9:13PM, PO BISHOP and I responded to a subject with gun complaint at the location of N. 76th St. and W. Good Hope Rd., later identified as being 7330 N. 76th St. (Kiss Ultra Lounge) within the City and County of Milwaukee. It was while en route that District 4 Dispatcher did notify responding squads that there were approximately 200 juveniles that were fighting as well as having guns and shooting.

Upon arrival, I spoke with the Owner/Operator of the security at Kiss Ultra Lounge. The subject was identified as Jieire A. VANCE(B/M 6-24-84). The name of the security outfit was Guarantee Protective Services with a phone #(414)397-8828. VANCE stated that there was a "Sweet 16" party at the location, which does have a posted 674 person capacity limit. The name of the party was "Kennedi's Sweet 16 ""Big Drip" which was evident by the banner located on the exterior wall of Kiss Ultra Lounge's northeastern most entranceway. With regard to the capacity, VANCE did not know how many juveniles were at the party as it was not monitored, however, it did appear to exceed 100 by the amount of juveniles walking southbound on N. 76th St. towards W. Good Hope Rd. while PO BISHOP and I were arriving on scene initially.

VANCE stated that the event was slated to end at 8:30PM and while he and his employees started to shut the party down and escort the party to the parking lot, he stated that a verbal, turn physical fight did break out in the parking lot between 2-3 females. During this fight, he and his security team started to intervene and escort some of the involved parties off premise. It was during this time that, according to VANCE, that a tan Audi or Infiniti 4dr auto with unknown registration plates did travel northbound on N. 76th St. from having come from the area of W. Good Hope Rd. While this vehicle was traveling north on N. 76th St., VANCE stated that he observed an unknown light complexion black male sitting on the sill of the exterior rear passenger side window. This subject sitting outside the window, while passing Kiss Ultra Lounge, proceeded to discharge 6-7 shots from a firearm. The vehicle proceeded north on N. 76th St. until out of sight.

After speaking with VANCE, I obtained the Public Entertainment Premises License(PEP-0005599) as well as reviewing the Class B Tavern License(BTAVN-0206813) with expiration 1-21-20 and Class D Operators License(BART-0230140) with expiration 12-31-20. The owner/partner of Kiss Ultra Lounge, identified as Marc A. BROWN(B/M 4-5-70) was on scene and cooperative.

End of report.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Nowak, James J 021524

05/20/2019

This report was written by PO James NOWAK, assigned to District Four, late shift.

On Monday, May 20, 2019 at approximately 2:10am, my partner PO Matthew BOUZEK, and I, while on Squad 4340 were dispatched to a shots fired complaint at the address of 7330 N 76th St., which is located in the City and County of Milwaukee.

Upon arrival I observed 13 spent casing scattered on N. 76th Street located in front of Kiss Ultra Lounge (7330 N. 76th St). I spoke to the security guard identified as Theron T. ROGERS (M/B, 06-05-1985) who stated at approximately 2:01am, an argument started between unknown subjects located in the parking lot. The unknown subjects then stopped arguing and walked to an unknown vehicle. ROGERS stated he entered back into the business and proceeded to hear multiple gunshots to the west of the location. ROGERS stated the police were then called. ROGERS stated he didn't observe anyone discharge a firearm nor seen any physical altercation while he was outside.

I reviewed the video from the tavern and was unable to observe any vehicles that may have been involved or any potential suspects. The video surveillance does not show the road-way where we located the spent casings.

I canvassed the area and did not locate any victims with any injuries.

I inventoried 8 Smith & Wesson S&B Brass .40cal casings, 2 Blazer Brass .45cal casings, 3 Smith & Wesson Hornady Brass .40cal casings. (Inventory #19016246)

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Hansen, Kevin R 029195

07/07/2019

On Saturday night/Sunday morning Squad 4237 along with 4460 (PO SCHLICKE, PO HANSEN), 4440 (PO BEATTIE, PO MAJEED), 4484 (PO CONNELL) and 4210 (SGT PANFIL) were assigned to monitor the special event at Kiss Ultra Lounge (7330 N 76th Street) where Milwaukee famous rappers Gwapo Chapo, Loonie Baby, and other affiliates would be performing.

To start out the night the parking lot management was unorganized and caused multiple vehicles to stop on N 76th Street and at some points block all northbound traffic. This created an unsafe environment and officers on scene had to step in multiple times to conduct traffic and keep the road clear. Squads addressed the lot attendants and advised them multiple times that cars could not block the street, which continued to happen. There was only one attendant assigned to the lot entrance who was unable and unwilling to keep up with the amount of traffic flowing in.

At 1:06 AM, while monitoring Kiss Ultra Lounge, 7330 N 76th Street, City and County of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, I was made aware via radio broadcast that a subject was possibly inside of the club shooting, per citizens leaving the club.

I observed multiple subjects running from inside out of both north side exit doors. The subjects were exiting in an extremely unorganized manner, running over each other and falling to the ground. It was not possible to gain entry to the club immediately to clear the inside, as officers would likely have been trampled over by the crowd. It was apparent that multiple subjects were caused to fear for their safety and be alarmed due to the unknown actor's actions.

Once officers were able to safely gain entry we cleared the club and did not observe any victims or evidence of shots fired. Multiple subjects stated to police that they heard a single firework go off near the dance floor.

I interviewed Christopher J HILL (B/M 09-29-1985) who was in the DJ booth in the main dance room, where the alleged firework went off. The DJ booth at Kiss is elevated and provides a view overlooking the dance floor. HILL stated he observed what he believed was a firework lit in the crowd, and then heard a "pop". HILL stated he did not see any firearms, nor did he believe it was a gunshot.

Report #19-188-0024 was filed as a Disorderly Conduct with an unknown actor, as there was no evidence of gunfire. The club closed early for the night as a result of the incident.

Saturday, February 9th, 2019 at 2:09 PM, while in full duty uniform equipped with a Axon body worn camera activated and in a marked squad, I along with P.O Cary DOYNE were dispatched to a trouble with subject complaint located at 9245 W. Brown Deer Road, which is located in the city and county of Milwaukee WI. Upon arrival, at 2:22 PM we were met by caller and complainant Roderick J. JOHNSON who stated that the store owner "pulled a gun on me and my nephew because I was ten cents short on my purchase." A large group of other people was on scene as well, including "King Rick" of the local chapter of the Black Panthers to voice their support for JOHNSON.

INTERVIEW OF MAHMOOD

The store was operated by Hamid MAHMOOD (W/M 10/13/1959 3838 S. Kinickinic Ave, St. Francis WI 53235. 414-202-7866 He stated that at 11:45AM, JOHNSON and a small child were in the store and he was buying a "Swisher" style cigar wrapper. MAHMOOD stated that JOHNSON was ten cents short of the total amount, but JOHNSON already had possession of the cigar wrapper before he finished counting the change. MAHMOOD stated he told JOHNSON he was ten cents short, but JOHNSON began walking away. MAHMOOD stated he said "This is not the way this works buddy," and then an argument about lack of money began. MAHMOOD noticed the child with a candy bar in his hand and MAHMOOD told JOHNSON to pay for the candy or put it back. MAHMOOD stated that he and JOHNSON began arguing and using profanity towards each other at which point he asked them to leave the store. JOHNSON and the child began to exit the store when JOHNSON threw the candy bar behind his shoulder and exited the store. MAHMOOD said that JOHNSON then came back into the store with the child and JOHNSON stood in the door way while the child retrieved the candy bar from the floor, picked it up, threw it again on the floor and stated "Suck my dick." MAHMOOD stated that JOHNSON stated "I should start tearing up your whole store right now." At which point MAHMOOD stated that he retrieved a 9mm Beretta from a cabinet behind the counter and placed it in his right pants pocket. He then came out from behind the cash register room and approached the exit of the store where JOHNSON was standing. He told JOHNSON "no, that's not going to happen, you need to leave the store now." MAHMOOD stated that he then pulled the pistol from his pocket and kept it at his side with the muzzle facing down, and continued to order JOHNSON to leave the store. JOHNSON and the child then left the store. MAHMOOD stated he feared his merchandise was going to be destroyed and damaged and he was going pick up the candy bar and lock the door after JOHNSON left.

INTERVIEW OF JOHNSON

Roderick J. JOHNSON (B/M 12/8/1982 7661 N. 78th street unit three, 53224 414-346-6162) stated that he knew he was ten cents short for the cigar wrapper and said the clerk (MAHMOOD) was aware of this and he always pays him back later when he is short of money and he is a regular customer. He said his nephew was looking at the candy and not stealing it. He stated he argued with MAHMOOD because he was using racial slurs and making derogatory comments towards him. He stated that MAHMOOD came out from behind the security glass and racked a gun in the direction of his nephew. JOHNSON stated he did not call police at the time of the incident (11:45AM) but went home and "Googled the Black Panther's information because the incident was bothering him and he couldn't let it go because a gun was pulled on me and he called me racial slurs." Johnson then returned to the store around 2:00 PM with a large group of individuals.
