Re: Health N. Wasserman

Dear Mr. Leonhardt:

By this letter, be notified that Health N. Wasserman, who resides at 2903 N. 23rd Street in the City of Milwaukee, urges the City of Milwaukee Common Council to issue an Amusement Machine Distributor's License to him. This matter came before the License Committee of the Common Council on October 14, 2008 and the Committee failed to reach a consensus on a recommendation regarding such license.

The basis for the request contained in this letter is contained within the attached addendum. The undersigned also requests an opportunity to appear before the Common Council on October 29, 2008 and make an oral statement on our position.

By this writing, this firm earnestly urges that the Common Council, as a whole, act affirmatively on Mr. Wasserman's appeal and grant renewal of his license.

Sincerely,

Addendum For Request to Issue
an Amusement Machine Distributor's License to Health N. Wasserman

On October 14, 2008, the Common Counsel License Committee failed to recommend approval or denial of a distributor's license to Health N. Wasserman. Instead, the Committee agreed to send the matter of such license to the Common Council without recommendation. The issue before the License Committee was the question of Mr. Wasserman's residence. Within the conclusions of law adopted by the Committee, you were advised as follows:

"No (amusement machine) distributor's license shall be granted to any person or partner not a resident of this state for at least one year prior to the date of filing of the application. In the case of a corporate applicant, a one year state residency requirement shall apply to the agent."

It is the position of Mr. Wasserman that the only competent evidence provided to the License Committee relative to his residence was provided by Mr. Wasserman. Health N. Wasserman, during the period relevant to the governing ordinance, was a resident of the State of Wisconsin, to wit for the years 2007-2008. During most of that period of time, Mr. Wasserman was being supervised by the Wisconsin Department of Corrections Probation Department, after having been sentenced to a term of probation for being a felon in possession of a firearm. That conviction was reversed by the District I Court of Appeals, causing the conclusion of Mr. Wasserman's probation obligation, as reflected in the record of proceedings before the License Committee. The decision was issued by the Court of Appeals on August 26, 2008 and communicated to the appropriate authorities by an order dated September 30, 2008 (copy of same attached as Exhibit 1).

During the course of Mr. Wasserman's sentence of probation, he was required to remain within the State of Wisconsin, unless he received prior written travel permission from his probation officer as is reflected in the log of his probation supervision, included with the record presented before the License Committee. That log also confirms that Mr. Wasserman had home visits with the probation officer at two addresses within the City of Milwaukee: 1) on North Prospect Avenue and 2) at 2903 N. 23rd Street.

At a time that Mr. Wasserman was in Illinois pursuant to a travel permit, he was arrested and charged with battery. On May 30, 2008, Mr. Wasserman was permitted a personal recognizance bond from a court in the State of Illinois, within which Mr. Wasserman was shown to have been a resident of 2901-2903 N. 23rd Street in the City of Milwaukee (copy of recognizance bond attached as Exhibit 2).

During the proceedings before the License Committee, Mr. Wasserman indicated that his father, Ronald Wasserman, residing at 6270 Timberlane Street, Agoura Hills, California, was part owner of the property where he resided (2901 N. 23rd Street) (see deed attached as Exhibit 3). Mr. Wasserman also conveyed a basic power of attorney for finances and property to his father, Ronald Wasserman, in a document dated January 16, 2008 (copy of power of attorney attached as Exhibit 4). On September 22, 2008, Mr. Wasserman reported the theft of license plates from his motor vehicle to the Milwaukee Police Department. In that report, Mr. Wasserman reported his address as 2903 N. 23rd Street, Milwaukee (copy of police report attached as Exhibit 5).

It is the position of Mr. Wasserman that he has provided evidence which is clear and convincing that during the years 2007 and 2008, he was a resident of the State of Wisconsin, and more particularly of the City of Milwaukee. The License Committee totally failed to advance any objective finding that would support denial of Mr. Wasserman's right to renewal of his Amusement Machine Distributor's License.
