

Biography Ted Matkom

Since joining Gorman & Company in 2007, Ted Matkom has served as Wisconsin Market President and General Counsel, playing a pivotal role in shaping the company's impact across the state. Under his leadership, the Wisconsin team has built a strong track record of collaborating with statewide housing authorities to modernize and revitalize public housing portfolios—delivering innovative, community-driven solutions that respond to evolving housing needs.

A recognized thought leader in affordable housing and neighborhood revitalization, Ted is deeply committed to strengthening underserved communities. Since 2010, he has been at the forefront of redevelopment efforts in Milwaukee's 30th Street Corridor, working to transform challenged neighborhoods through strategic investment, cross-sector partnerships, and sustainable development practices.

Ted's vision, legal expertise, and on-the-ground engagement continue to guide Gorman & Company's work in building equitable and resilient communities throughout Wisconsin.
