

Edward S. Levin
1840 North Prospect Avenue, #820
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53202
414-223-4455

Education - J.D., University of Wisconsin School of Law, Madison, Wisconsin
B.S., Political Science, Milton College, Milton Wisconsin

President of the W. Dudley Johnson Foundation 1993-2003

Instrumental in establishing non-profit Foundation to honor the renowned cardiovascular surgeon, W. Dudley Johnson, M.D. The Foundation sponsored scholarship programs, educational and community activities aimed at preventing heart disease. Developed strategic plan to steer the international Foundation into the 21st Century. Served as chief fund raiser and oversaw all fund raising activities and events. Reviewed grant applications and selected projects worthy of funding.

Presently a member of the Board of Directors.

Executive Assistant to the Dean of the College of Health Sciences, University of Wisconsin Milwaukee - 1999-Present

Focused on highlighting the university and its educational role in metropolitan Milwaukee, forging new partnerships, developing new vehicles to bring greater visibility to the school and the university.

State Counsel and Executive Secretary, Wisconsin Psychiatric Association, 1975 - Present

The Wisconsin Psychiatric Association is a non-profit, professional organization providing educational services and scientific updates to its membership. Responsibilities include developing and implementing annual scientific and socio-economic conferences, providing legal representation on issues regarding Medicaid reimbursements, patient confidentiality and psychiatric medicine. Accomplishments include presentation of oral argument before the Wisconsin Supreme Court regarding the privileged communications of psychiatrists. Established Fellowships for residents in psychiatry at the UWM Medical School and the Medical College of Wisconsin.

President - Reid & Associates, Inc. and Reid Builder Supplies, Inc., Milwaukee - 1981-1987

Accomplishments include acquiring four operations and merging them into the parent company and expanding operational sites to five additional midwest states. Responsibilities included formulating and administering labor and personnel policies, managing employee relations, developing and implementing fiscal strategies, negotiating contracts and acquisitions, and devising profitable and innovative marketing techniques.

Attorney - Law Offices of Edward S. Levin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 1952-1985

Specialized in practicing corporate real estate law. Represented corporate clients involving issues related to commercial and industrial contracts, sub-contractors and material persons, presented oral arguments to various governmental bodies regarding zoning permits, variances and real estate tax matters.

Instructor - University of Wisconsin School of Law, Madison, Wisconsin, Summers 1970-1971

Taught second and third year law students "Real Estate Transactions".

Member - Governor's Health Policy Council, Madison, Wisconsin, 1975

Council dealt with financing of health care and issuing certificates of need to hospitals. Chaired state-wide public hearings for the Council's Committee on Health Education of the Public.

Commissioner

Milwaukee County Human Relations Social Development Commission, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 1970

Commission was a quasi-governmental body designed to develop and implement social welfare programs for Milwaukee County.

Chairperson

Milwaukee County Human Rights Commission, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 1970

Governmental body that monitored discriminatory practices, and provided a forum for voicing discrimination complaints in the private and public sectors.