President & CEO, BloodCenter of Wisconsin

The Avenues West neighborhood has experienced a dramatic revitalization over the past 20 years, resulting in a better place to live and work, and significantly higher property values.*

Investing in Avenues West was the best business decision I have made.

Together We Can

Business, education, health care, research, tourism — Avenues West has it all.

Located just west of downtown Milwaukee, the Avenues West neighborhood is home to several institutions, light industrial and retail businesses, churches, schools and residential areas. Downtown attractions, sports and convention venues and major highways are just a short drive or walk away.

The Avenues West Association is a not-for-profit neighborhood association that advocates for development and revitalization, aesthetic enhancements, cooperative marketing and planning, networking and safety throughout Avenues West. Along with its partner—the Avenues West Business Improvement District—the association leads the way in promoting community stability, land balance and economic development.

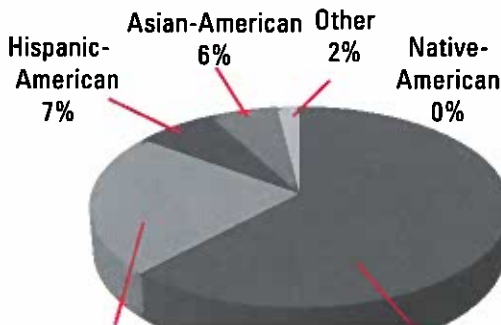

Avenues West Neighborhood

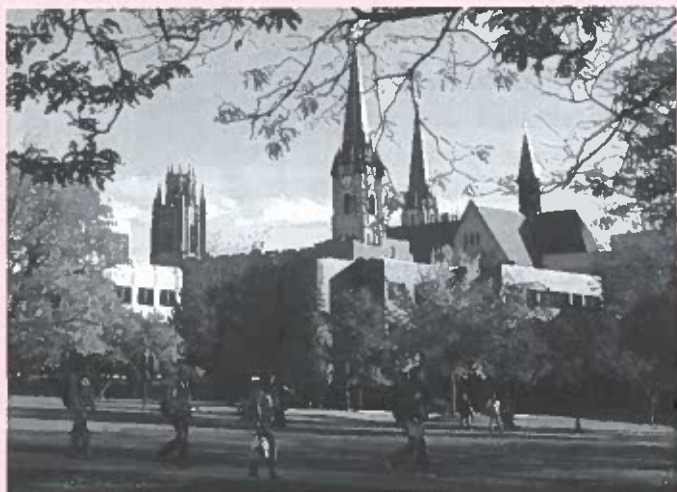

The Avenues West Neighborhood is bounded by W. Highland Blvd. on the north, N. 28th St. on the west, Interstate 94 on the south, and Interstate 43 North on the east. It is in close proximity to the downtown area including theatres, shopping, city hall, sports venues, the lake front, museums, festival grounds and health care facilities.

The 2010 Census found more than 12,000 people living in 4,413 households within the neighborhood that encompasses nearly three-quarters of a square mile, or about 92 city blocks.

- Avenues West is home to many attractions such as the Irish Cultural and Heritage Center.
- More than 27,000 students and faculty are located on Wisconsin Avenue and Marquette University.
- Marquette University is a major faculty and staff.
- Aurora Sinai Medical Center is a major health care facility.
- Avenues West serves...

A university rooted in an urban neighborhood like Avenues West resonates deeply with the tradition of Jesuit higher education. We're absolutely committed to being a part of this great community and look forward to continue building on our rich partnerships here.

Scott R. Pilarz, S.J.
President, Marquette University

As a neighborhood development business and property owner we work on a day to day basis to make improvements that will "make a difference" for the Avenues West neighborhood.
