Wilckens, Nicholas G 029234

07/20/2020

This report is written by PO Nicholas WILCKENS, assigned to District Two, Late shift, on squad 2326.

On Monday, July 20th, 2020 at approximately 1:43 AM. squad 2322 and squad 2515 were on S 2nd St. and W Lapham Blvd, when they heard gunshots come from one block away in the area of Points View bar.

Upon arrival there was approximately 50 people outside of the establishment talking about someone shooting off a "tiny gun" in the parking lot of the establishment before leaving.

The owner of the bar was on scene, identified as Marcos RAMOS-GARCIA (W/M 3-1-1985), who cooperated with our investigation of the shots fired. RAMOS-GARCIA allowed us to view video footage of his parking lot. According to witnesses they thought the shots were fired from behind the building in the alley, but there were no cameras in that direction.

A canvass of the parking lot area did not reveal any casings recovered, it should be noted that this is the only open establishment in the area of the shots fired. The large crowd of approximately 50 people soon dispersed after police arrival.

RAMOS-GARCIA stated he would contact police if he was to located any footage of the incident or any casings.

1st St and W Lapham Bl., in the City and County of Milwaukee, WI, when officers heard the sound of gunfire in the area (see supplemental report(s) regarding). During the investigation officers were initially unable to verify that a subject had discharged a firearm and were unable to locate any evidence regarding the incident.

On Thursday, August 6, 2020, at 9:52 AM, Squad 2166 (P.O. Matthew DIENER and I) conducted follow up at Scrub-A-Dub Car Wash, located at 1635 S 1st St., regarding this incident. Officers spoke with the manager, Safet SELIMOVIC, who was able to access the video surveillance system. The camera system captured two angles relevant to the investigation, the main parking lot (Channel2) area between Scrub-A-Dub and Point's View Boite and the parking lot/alley area to the north of Scrub-A-Dub and behind Point's View Boite (Channel4). I found that the date stamp was accurate; however the time stamp appeared to be approximately 3 minutes ahead of the current time. The video runs from 1:52AM to 1:55AM

The following is a summary of the recovered video, the video was placed on MPD inventory #20027877, item 1 of 1, as evidence.

The video depicts the patrons for Point's View Boite exiting the premises and walking to vehicles to leave the location. The video depicts a male exit the premises, walk westbound through the parking lot, westbound across the alley to the rear of the premises, walk along a detached garage at the rear of 1618 S 2nd St. the subject leaves the view of the camera for a short period of time, returns walking back eastbound along the south side of the garage and is observed discharging a handgun with his right hand numerous times into the air. A security guard monitoring the crowd in the parking lot turns to look at and eventually walk toward the subject, who then possibly walks northbound through the alley and out of view of the camera due to the numerous vehicles and people in the immediate area. Soon after wards officers respond to the location. Approximately 50 subjects are outside of the premises during the incident.

Subject description;

Black male, 20-30, short black hair, thin build, wearing a white short sleeve t-shirt with a black Nike "Swoosh" on the back, dark knee-length shorts, and dark shoes.

FOLLOW-UP

Sanchez-Alcantar, Christian G 029221

09/04/2020

This report is written by PO Christian Sanchez-Alcantar, assigned to Early Power Shift, with PO Taylor Schmitz, Squad 2421.

On Friday, September 4th 2020, at approximately 5:00 PM, we were instructed by Milwaukee Police Captain David Salazar to conduct follow-up regarding an ESBUDW investigation (CAD 20-202-0173, IR 20-202-0023) which occurred on July 20th 2020.

While at 1618 S 2nd St, I recovered and backed up video surveillance of an ESBUDW incident which occurred on July 20th 2020, at approximately 1:49 PM. Video Surveillance (which is 2 hours behind) shows an Orange, Dodge Ram Daytona drive through the alley at approximately 1:47 AM, stopping at the end of it. The Dodge Ram then proceeds to back up, stopping just south of the garage, where Channel 4 on the camera system was facing. At about 1:48:17, there was a 30 second time skip, and at 1:48:49, an unknown subject is then shown in the frame, possibly from getting out of the Dodge Ram (Channel 3, which faces the alley, does not show this unknown subject walking through) walking over to the vehicles parked behind 1618 S 2nd St. The unknown subject then stops between a BLU 4DR Sedan and a RED 4DR Sedan, and intentionally and without consent, fires approximately 5 shots straight into the air, with an unknown semi-automatic handgun. The unknown subject then proceeds to walk through the alley, northbound, before walking east on the sidewalk towards S 1st St.

Video Surveillance of the incident then shows, at approximately 3:22 AM to 3:25 AM, three individuals walk up to the exact spot where the shots were fired from, searching the floor for any casings there. A male, later identified by the resident here (Jose A Bonilla-Cortez [W/M 11-06-2000]) as the bar owner at 1619 S 1st St, Marcos A Ramos-Garcia (W/M 03-01-1985), was seen drinking a can of an unknown beverage then picking up and looking at a brass casing in his hand. Ramos-Garcia is then seen holding onto the casing, then later leaving the scene.

Suspect 1 is identified as a B/M, approximately 25-35 yoa, 5'08"-10" tall, with BLK dreads (with orange tips at the end) in a ponytail, wearing a WHI short sleeve T-shirt with a BLK Nike logo on the back, BLK basketball shorts with a WHI stripe on the sides, BLK crew socks, and BLK basketball shoes.

I reviewed prior reports and observed on July 20th 2020, PO N Wilckens responded and spoke with the bar owner, identified as Ramos-Garcia, who stated he would contact police had he located any footage or casings regarding the incident. There is no documentation of Ramos-Garcia ever notifying the police that he located casings in the rear of the location nor asking the neighbors for the video surveillance of the incident, even though it shows him removing evidence from a crime scene.

VIDEO OF LICENSEE

Diener, Matthew J 018626

This report is written PO Matthew DIENER, assigned to District 2, day shift, squad 2166. On Monday, September 7, 2020, at approximately 9:00am I reviewed recovered video footage, which was recovered by PO SCHMITZ on 9/4/20 from the address of 1618 S 2nd St, see SUPP #2 and/or 20-LP-0849. The video depicts the suspect, described as black male, 20's-30's, 5'10"-6'00", medium length dreads with frosted tips pulled back in a tie, wearing a white Nike t-shirt with the black Swoosh on the back, black Nike shorts with a white Nike Swoosh on the left side, produce a black semi-auto handgun at approximately 1:48am (time stamp 23:48 and 2 hours behind actual time), and fires the gun approximately 5 times in the air behind 1618 S 2nd St. The suspect is then seen walking north in the alley.

At approximately 1:50am you can observe a black and white marked Milwaukee Police squad pull up in front of the premise after hearing the gun shots while a block away. At approximately 1:54am you then observe tavern security at the scene with flashlights, looking at the ground for spent casings. Then at approximately 3:22am you see the licensee, Marcos A RAMOS-GARCIA, wearing a black sweatshirt with stylized writing on the front, black and red Chicago Bulls shorts, and black and red Jordan basketball shoes, walking from behind the garage along with 2 other subjects, described as a heavy set Hispanic male, wearing an all black t-shirt and shorts. The 2nd subject was a white male subject, wearing a white collared shirt, long hair, blue bandana, with tattoos on his arms walking with the subjects.

The subjects are all observed picking up the casings, and handing them to RAMOS-GARCIA, at which point you can actually see him open his hand holding several casings. All 3 subjects continue to look for casings until approximately 3:25am when they start to walk back east towards 1619 S 1st St. It should be noted that at no point did RAMOS-GARCIA notify police regarding the found casings, intentionally obstructing police during the shots fired incident.

I then watched Axon BWC footage from officers WILCKENS and POWELL which shows RAMOS-GARCIA standing in front of the premise, wearing the previously described clothing, speaking with Sgt JOLLIFF. You then observe PO WILCKENS speak with RAMOS-GARCIA and attempt to get his information for a PA-33 Tavern Report. At this point RAMOS-GARCIA becomes very confrontational with WILCKENS asking him "Why do you need my info? For what? Nothing happened over here. Who sent you here?" RAMOS-GARCIA refuses to give officers his information for a report, challenging Sgt JOLLIFF as to why he should. RAMOS-GARCIA then continues to argue with Sgt JOLLIFF about cooperating with police because "Nothing happened here (the tavern)." RAMOS-GARCIA argues with Sgt JOLLIFF for several more minutes before giving PO WILCKENS his information.

Squads subsequently cleared from the assignment, with the last squad, squad 2326 (WILCKENS) cleared from the assignment at approximately 2:34am. RAMOS-GARCIA is then observed with the other subjects approximately an hour later, at 3:22am, intentionally picking up the casings, obstructing the police investigation and not reporting their discovery. The video of the incident and body camera was forwarded to Sgt RADEN at LIU.

ARREST OF LICENSEE

Diener, Matthew J 018626

07/23/2021

On 07/20/20, at or about 1:40 Am, Milwaukee Police officers responded to 1619 S 1st St, in the City and County of Milwaukee, WI, to investigate a report of "Shots Fired". Officers spoke with the owner of the premises, Marcos RAMOS-GARCIA M/W 03/01/85, who stated he was unaware of any such incident. Video evidence recovered depicted an unknown actor discharging a firearm at or about 1:54 Am and depicts RAMOS-GARCIA picking up spent bullet casings from the rear of 1618 S 2nd St at or about 3:25 AM, in the City and County of Milwaukee, WI, with his employees. RAMOS-GARCIA failed to notify the Milwaukee Police Department of the evidence he had collected and failed to turn the evidence over to the Milwaukee Police Department, who had previously informed RAMOS-GARCIA of the criminal investigation, thus obstructing the investigation. RAMOS-GARCIA reported to District Two, 245 W Lincoln Av, on 9/14/2020 and was taken into custody without incident. RAMOS-GARCIA declined to make any statement regarding his involvement in the crime.

RAMOS-GARCIA was subsequently charged with Resisting or Obstructing an Officer 946.41(1), a Class A Misdemeanor. RAMOS-GARCIA made his initial appearance in court on 12-21-20, which the court reviewing the complaint and finding probable cause to bind the case over for trial. On 4-7-21 the case was heard in court for a continued motion hearing. The court placed findings on the record and grants defense motion to dismiss. Court dismissed the case without prejudice.

On Saturday January 10th, 2021 at 12:40 am my partner P.O. Oscar ESPITIA and I along with Squad 2585 (P.O. SPINATO, P.O. BAAS) conducted a License Premises Check at the location of 1619 S 1st St (Point View Boite) which is located in the city and county of Milwaukee.

Upon arrival we asked the outside tavern personnel (security guard) how many patrons were in the establishment, he stated he did not know and stated the security guard inside was keeping count. Upon entering the tavern we asked security personnel at the door if he knew how many people were in the tavern and if he had a counter he looked confused and stated he didn't know and he didn't have the counter.

We spoke with owner Marcos A. RAMOS-GARCIA (M/W, 03/01/1985) and asked him if he knew how many patrons were inside his establishment. RAMOS-GARCIA stated that his security personnel knew how many patrons were in the tavern and that they are keeping track with a counter. RAMOS-GARCIA asked one of his personnel to bring him the counter to verify how many patrons were inside. The security guard returned with the counter and stated that their are 44 patrons inside. The capacity of Point View Boite is 50% due to Covid (48 patrons including staff). We estimated approximately 80 people plus personnel inside the establishment.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

07/12/2021

Morales-Colon, Jimmy A 027070

This report is being written by PO MORALES-COLON assigned to District Two Late Shift Squad 2328.

On Monday, July 12th 2021, at approximately 2:28 a.m. PO MUNIZ and I were dispatched (in full duty uniform, marked squad, with Axon body worn camera) to 1619 S. 1st St. for a Shots Fired call for service.

When we arrived we located 9 casings and 1 cartridge in the rear of Points View Boite. See report filed by PO MUNIZ regarding.

Our caller was an anonymous female who we were unable to interview.

As security members left the location I briefly asked if they had heard or if they saw anything regarding the shots fired. Security guards at the location stated that they did not see or hear any shots fired.

I also spoke to Juan RODRIGUEZ (H/M, 8-4-91) who is the current general manager of Points View and runs the day to day operations. RODRIGUEZ stated that he heard no shots fired and reported no incident at the location.

PO CLIFFORD was able to retrieve video from Scrub A Dub of the incident.

The video shows an altercation between two parties. The altercation leads to those two parties entering vehicles and discharging firearms at one another. The video also shows approximately 4-5 security members outside of the business at the time that these parties are discharging the firearms.

It should be noted that the security members are seen taking cover and were clearly aware of the incident. It did not appear as though RODRIGUEZ is seen in the video.

Security members failed to notify police of the incident while on scene and did not call 911.

See PO MUNIZ report regarding a detailed account of the video.

Follow Up:

While conducting follow up on 7/18/2021 I spoke to Marcos RAMOS-GARCIA (H/M, 3-1-85) the owner of Points View. RAMOS-GARCIA, RODRIGUEZ and I had a conversation regarding this incident. It should be noted that RAMOS-GARCIA was not present during the incident. RAMOS-GARCIA stated that he understood the importance of reporting all incidents that occur on or around his business. RAMOS-GARCIA stated that he would take disciplinary action against his staff and that it would not occur again.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Morales-Colon, Jimmy A 027070

07/16/2021

This report is written by Police Officer Romulo MUNIZ-HERRERA, assigned to District Two, Late Shift.

On Monday, July 12th, 2021 at 2:23 A.M. Squad 2328 (P.O. Jimmy MORALES-COLON and I) were dispatched to a Shots Fired Complaint at the address of 1619 S. 1st St., located in the City and County of Milwaukee.

Upon arrival, my partner and I located a total of 9 - 9mm Handgun casings and 1 - 9mm Handgun Cartridge at the rear of 1619 S. 1st St. (Points View Boite) near the dumpsters. P.O. MORALES-COLON spoke to security staff from Points View Boite as they were leaving, they stated they did not see or hear anything. There was a unknown male sitting in a vehicle, who stated he thought it was fireworks but wanted to remain anonymous. We did not locate anything damaged by gunfire during our canvass.

On 7/13/2021, P.O. CLIFFORD conducted follow up and obtained video surveillance from Scrub-A-Dub Car Wash and placed it on MPD Inventory.

The video depicts an altercation occurring in the Scrub-A-Dub Car Wash between an Unknown Male Subject 1 (Possibly Hispanic) wearing a red shirt, black pants, short hair and an Unknown Male Subject 2 (Possibly Hispanic) wearing a black shirt with yellow lettering and black pants. After Points View Boite Security breaks up the altercation, Subject 2 then gets into a silver suv, that was parked near the entrance of the car wash on S. 1st St. facing Southbound and Subject 1 walks towards his vehicle, a dark colored sedan parked at the end of the parking lot next to the dumpsters. The silver suv then turns into the parking lot and stops in front of the the dark colored sedan. After the vehicle stops, it shows the subjects in the silver suv and the occupants in the dark colored sedan begin to exchange gunfire. The silver suv then pulls away and stops in the alley and Subject 1 exits the vehicle and begins to shoot at the dark colored sedan. The sedan then flees Eastbound through the parking lot towards S. 1st. St., and the silver suv flees Northbound in the Alley

On Friday, July 21st, 2021 at approximately 1:00AM, while monitoring traffic on at the intersection of S 1st ST, and W Greenfield Av., my squad partner and I were flagged down by a female in a vehicle stating that we needed to respond to Points View Boite due to a large fight breaking out.

P.O.Chris Greer and I responded with our emergency lights and sirens on, upon arrival we observed a large group of approximately 6-7 subjects actively fighting in the parking lot of the scrub-a-dub. Security on scene stated that the two subjects were possibly related, and did not know why they were fighting. All of the subjects fled the scene upon police arrival.

Follow-up was conducted by P.O. Kevin VODICKA, who obtained video of the incident. The video depicted a altercation at the doorway of Points View, a short time later you can see my squad car with its emergency lights activated and arrive on scene. Upon arrival security is observed attempting to push/breakup the altercation in the the parking lot. The owner of the business was on scene, and identified as Marcos RAMOS-GARCIA (W/M 3-1-1985), who was cooperative with our investigation.

All subjects involved in the altercation/fight left the scene with no further incident.
