REDACTED RECORD

*****I REQUEST TO REMAIN ANONYMOUS*****

This letter is concerning an objection to the Milestones Spots Bar at 2978 North Mother Simpson Way. My objection stands to the fact that since this bar has opened there has been nothing but trouble. The patrons hang outside of the bar most nights, on the corner, sitting on top of cars in the street.

to the sounds of gunshots.

patrons before entering the facility,

hide

guns

on numerous occasions.

a loud boom

at the back of the bar and one guy with what looked like an AK-47 gun, facing west on Chambers street and firing the gun, as others stood and watched. 911 and the police came, but the guys were gone by the time they arrived.

They guy had stored his weapons underneath car

some guys come out of the bar. I noticed one of the guys had a gun in his hand.

shots were fired.

Another night some people had exited the bar, just hanging out on the corner. During this time a female and male begin to exchange words because she was not interested in him. The argument became very heated. She proceeded to call someone on her telephone and tell them to come handle the guy she was into it with. She then gets into her car and as she drive away, the guy stood on the west side of Mother Simpson Way and fired about five shots into the vehicle as it drove off. Police came, but by the time of their arrival, the guy had pulled off.

Another night, it was bar closing time and the people had the streets blocked with cars, no one could get through. During this time, three girls were proceeding to jump on a guy for calling one of the girls out of their name. People got out of their cars to watch the fight. Therefore, those who wanted to move, could not move. A guy in a red Camry went to his car got a gun and fired three shots into the air. Others followed suit with their guns. The people begin to scatters, abruptly taking off in their cars. Police arrived and cleared the rest of the traffic and to perform their duties regarding gunfire.

Another night apparently there was an incident that went on inside the bar that carried outside. One guy standing on Mother Simpson Way facing north was firing a gun at a guy who standing at the intersection of Chambers and North 10th Street facing south. One Guy was apprehended by the police. The guys that was arrested friends returned to look for the gun,

They were there looking for the gun for some time, nothing was found. But this is ongoing things with people hiding their weapons on this property.

Another night the bar had closed and the people were gather outside, not going to their cars to depart from the area. Traffic was once again, at a standstill due to many blocking the streets, playing their loud music and sitting on the side of their cars. Some decided to fire off a gun and others begin to follow suit. A police detective car just so happened to be on the corner and there was a guy standing , that decided to fire his gun into the air (didn't see the detectives I guess). They quickly apprehended him and also retrieved the gun.

there is loud music almost every single night, especially on Mondays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturday when they have a Disc Jockey. They keep the rear door open to the fenced in backyard.

Also the patrons gather in the backyard to make drug purchases and use drugs. The marijuana as it reeks through the drugs being sold, cocaine being sniffed. I have even seen someone perform a sexual act, but stopped before someone would catch them. There are many underage people that gather at this establishment.

This establishment has brought unnecessary trouble to a neighborhood that is usually quiet at night. The neighborhood is filled with many children and all these activities propose a greater risk to children being hurt or an innocent bystander.

The business operators do not seem to care about this areas because usually when the trouble arises, they leave for fear of the police coming into the bar, or they stay in with the lights out until they think the coast is clear. I totally object to ANY future business for this place. The drugs and guns are not a good thing when it comes to a community trying to revive itself from years of downfall.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS:

DRAFT DRAFT DRAFT

This supplemental report is written by P.O. Laurel Lammers, assigned to District Five as the Community Liaison Officer.

On Monday, December 07, 2015 at 4 pm, I met with Agnes Boone regarding her liquor license application for the tavern located at 2978 N Mother Simpson Way. This survey was conducted at that location. P.O. Walker did accompany me for this survey.

location is already open, but under a different licensee
we did inform Mrs. Boone that she cannot open or operate under the other person's license
Mrs Boone stated that her lease for the commercial space will begin once she is approved for her license

Mrs. Boone stated that she is the licensee, and that her daughter and son will be helping to operate the business. She further stated that her son will primarily be security for the business, and will work mostly on the weekends. She did state that he will not be armed for now.

Mrs Boone does not have a distributor, so PO Walker did explain to her that she must purchase her alcohol through a licensed distributor and he also advised that she keep all of her invoices
Mrs. Boone does not currently know about the camera system that is in place. We did advise her that all employees should know how to retrieve footage and that ideally the footage should be stored for at least 30 days.

P.O. Walker did highlight the importance of staying within capacity and how important it is to be involved with the actual operations of the bar.

There is currently a pool table inside of the tavern. Mrs. Boone stated that she will not run leagues right now. We did advise her that she may want to get a public entertainment license if she wanted to have live music or DJ's.

We also referred Mrs. Boone to connect with other successful bar owners, such as Best Friendz Klubhouse and Skybox Sports Lounge.
