Applicant appearing with Atty. Andy Arena as counsel. The applicant agrees to move ahead with the hearing despite not receiving written notice of the hearing.

Individuals appearing:

Ald. Michael Murphy, 10th District

In opposition:

Amy Turim, owner of business at 5601 W. North Ave., is in opposition to the license due to unruly patrons, loitering, verbal abuse of the staff of her business, noise from the tavern, trash on the sidewalk outside, vomiting by patrons going into the bar and drunk patrons. She says that the area is not an environment that is conducive to conducting business due to the problems at the tavern.

Ofc. Scott Lesniewski, Community Prosecution Unit in District 3 of the Milwaukee Police Department, testifies that the applicant has not been seen in the establishment on a regular basis and the department does not believe that the applicant is in control of the establishment. Ofc. Lesniewski says that that the Police Department is not making a formal objection to the license.

In support:

Naomi Cayce, 5529 W. North Ave, is in support of the license as she has not witnessed any problem activity at the bar.

Angela Dorsey, 2513 N 15th St., is in support of the license as she has not witnessed any problem activity at the bar.

Atty. Arena says that he is in objection to the police department's testimony as the applicant is not required to be at the establishment at all times and objects to the testimony because it is not the result of personal knowledge. Ald. Bohl supports the objection based on hearsay and requests the testimony be stricken from the record. Atty. Stephens says that if the testimony should be stricken from the record, it must be based on rules against hearsay.
