

City/County Commission on Supportive Housing

2014 Annual Report

Community and Economic Development Committee

February 2, 2015

2014 trends

- Newest developments mix supportive and affordable units.
- Supportive housing serving broader variety of needs.
- City-owned foreclosed properties repurposed as supportive housing.

Large developments

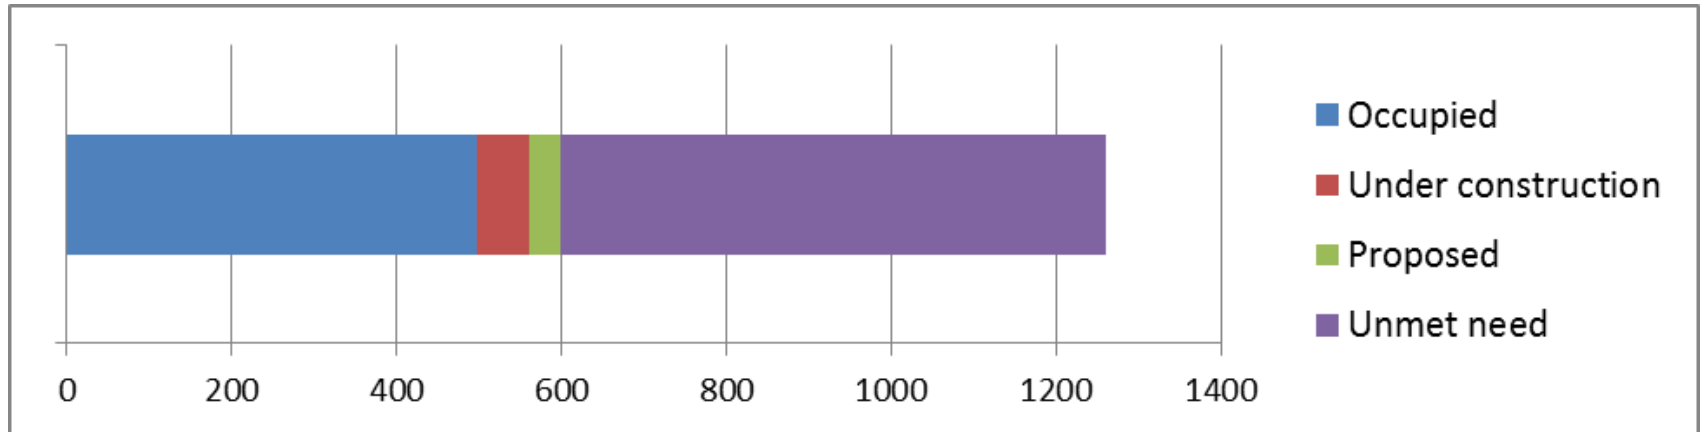

- Maskani Place – opened January 2014
- Bradley Crossing II – under construction
- Greenwich Park Apartments – received tax credits in 2014; construction in 2015

Small developments

- Journey House
 - Young adults aging out of foster care
 - City tax-foreclosed apartment building
- Veterans Gardens
 - Military veterans and their families
 - City tax-foreclosed apartment buildings
- Keys to Independence
 - Homeless individuals
 - 40 apartments in buildings throughout Milwaukee County

Supportive housing scorecard

10-year goal: 1260 units in Milwaukee County

As of 12/31/2014: 561 units occupied, under construction and proposed