I began working for the Milwaukee Brat House, as a bartender, in April 2009. During the next couple of years, I was promoted to General Manager before moving to Louisiana in 2012. Returning in 2014, I worked as the General Manager of Jack's American Pub before becoming an owner in 2015. From there, my business partners and I have opened up several other bars, restaurants, and a golf course before the recent creation of Heard Hospitality Management Group.
