

Marianne Burish
Executive Vice President
Tenant/Buyer Representation & Agency Leasing

TRANSWESTERN ROLE

Marianne is a multi-disciplinary practice leader in the Milwaukee brokerage office. As a trusted strategic partner, she brings an advisory approach and a "best-in-class" platform to create successful outcomes for tenants, building owners, investors and developers in today's challenge-filled yet opportunity-rich real estate marketplace.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Burish's practice specialties include office tenant representation, buyer representation for owner-occupied and investment properties, landlord representation for office leasing, site search and analysis for development/redevelopment projects, and consulting services in advance of transaction related work.

Representative clients include both national and local firms including Ascension Health, Bader Rutter, Lubar & Company, Nicholas Company, AIG Group, Alliant Energy, Monster Worldwide, Park Bank, Optique Capital Management (John Hancock), American Deposit Management, URS, Halling & Cayo, ISI America, Pieper Properties, Principal Capital, Gorman & Company, Cardinal Stritch University, and others.

Prior to joining Transwestern, Burish was an owner at Siegel-Gallagher, Inc.(SGI), a highly regarded locally owned Milwaukee commercial real estate firm. Prior to SGI, she was a senior valuation consultant with American Appraisal Associates, specializing in business enterprise, capital stock, and intangible asset valuations for Fortune 500 clients nationally.
