Narrative (1)

PREMISE CHECK

Stegerwald, Brett T 028815

03/18/2020

This report was submitted by PO Brett Stegerwald. I am currently assigned to District 4, Early Shift, Squad 4227 with PO Shane Doughty.

On 3/18/20, PO Doughty and I were asked by acting D4 Shift Commander Sgt. Federer, to conduct a License Premise Check at the address of 8762 N Granville Rd. A citizen called in stating that Irie Palace Bar and Grill has been open the last two nights, and is violating the state wide mandate due to the novel Covid-19 virus.

PO Doughty and I arrived on scene at approximately 6:24 pm. I immediately observed 8-10 vehicles parked in the parking lot to Irie Palace, and an "open" LED sign in the front window. I observed patrons to the business out back smoking cigarettes also.

Upon making entrance into the business, I observed multiple people inside the bar. I observed multiple people with drinks sitting in front of them. I observed two people playing billiards, whom also had drinks in a glass jar, along with empty plates, and it appeared they had just ate inside inside the Irie Palace.

Shortly after walking in, almost all of the patrons inside Irie Palace, left the bar. PO Doughty and I asked if the owner or manager of the bar was, and Patrick D Hudson (b/m,8/24/66) stated he was the manager. Hudson is also the business agent for Irie Palace.

PO Doughty spoke to Hudson about the state wide mandate, and provided him a copy of the rules and regulations that are put in place right now, due to the Covid-19 flu. PO Doughty advised Hudson that nobody should be in the bar, and that if they order food, it should be for take out only, and the customers, should only come in to pay, and pick up their food. PO Doughty advised Hudson that after the customers pay for their food, they should wait in their car for a short amount of time, and to only come back inside when the food is ready for pick up.

Hudson stated he was only advised by the news of the temporary "no dining in" restrictions. Hudson denied serving any alcohol since this state wide mandate was implemented. Hudson stated people were only drinking juice, water, and red bulls.

Hudson was advised that a continued failure to adhere by the state mandated rules, could potentially result in loss of his license, and a potential fine. I advised Hudson we would be continuously following up with bars/restaurants in the area to make sure they are following all temporary rules and regulations.

Hudson was extremely cooperative, and stated he would follow the rules from this point out. Hudson was provided a copy of the current food/restaurant regulations in place, and was advised to contact the district if he had any questions or concerns.

I spoke to the manager/bartender Romiesha M Rhodes (b/f,8/27/91) and also advised her of the currently regulations, and she also stated no alcohol has been being served. Rhodes was advised of the best way to serve customers the take out food, and limit how long people are inside of the Irie Palace. Rhodes Bartender License number is 0230803.

End of report.
