

MILWAUKEE FIRE AND POLICE COMMISSION

COMPELLED STATEMENT OF DEPARTMENT MEMBER

I understand that the matter for which the Fire and Police Commission will question me is a confidential personnel investigation of which I am not the target. I agree that I will not discuss or communicate in any way the nature of my appearance at the Fire and Police Commission or the content of any discussions that take place regarding the above-referenced matter with anyone or any entity other than the Fire and Police Commission. This does not prohibit discussion with legal counsel. Additionally, I am not prohibited from discussing these matters with my union representative on the further conditions that I notify my union representative of the confidential nature of these discussions and that my union representative agrees to keep these matters confidential.

I understand that by providing truthful statements I will not be subjected to disciplinary action and my statements cannot be used against me in a criminal proceeding. I further understand that by being exempt from disciplinary action and criminal prosecution, I have no right to representation under Wisconsin Statute § 164.02.

I understand that by failing to abide by this order, I could be subjected to disciplinary action pursuant to the Code of Conduct Core Value 5.00 - Guiding Principal 5.03 and Core Value 3.00 - Guiding Principal 3.04. I further understand that my failure to provide truthful statements could result in disciplinary action pursuant to Core Value 3.00 - Guiding Principal 3.11.
