

JEREMY DAVIS

2350 N. 16th St. Milwaukee, WI 53206 | 678.770.7647 | jeremy@walnutway.org

EXPERIENCE

- 2010 - Present    Environmental Specialist, Walnut Way Conservation Corp.
- Environmental programs manager
  - Blue Skies Landscaping manager: job training and employment program focused on sustainable landscaping in Metropolitan Milwaukee. Annual sales revenue $400,000 to $500,000. Landscape maintenance, landscape installation, green infrastructure design, installation and maintenance, hardscape installations. 12 FT employees. Management responsibilities include: HR, developing and implementing staff training curriculum and program, crew logistics, vehicle/equipment operation and maintenance, job bidding, project management, billing and receiving, budgeting.
  - Manage Growing Youth Leadership summer internship program. Intensive urban agriculture business internship. Intensive production of organic crops on subacre urban campus.
  - Manage environmental innovations on Walnut Way's campus, including urban agriculture, permaculture, water management, sustainable systems planning
- 2005 - 2010    Small Business Adviser, United States Peace Corps -- Ghana, West Africa
- Design and implementation of training curriculum delivered nationwide to rural ecotourism sites, for development of sustainable businesses focused on natural and cultural resource protection. Trained and supported 10 local staff to continue program after departure.

EDUCATION

- 2005    BBA, Banking & Finance, University of Georgia
- 2012    Masters of Urban Planning, University of Wisconsin Milwaukee

NEIGHBORHOOD INVESTMENT

- Co-developer, The Historic Walter A. Schmidt Tavern building, 1848 W. Fond du Lac Avenue