

Walter Chesser is a lifetime resident of the City of Milwaukee. Mr. Chesser graduated from the Milwaukee Public School System in 1968. In 1971 Mr. Chesser incorporated People's Catering and contracted with the Social Development Commission (SDC) through 1973, to launch and provide the SDC free breakfast for children and senior citizens program. Over the next ten years Mr. Chesser expanded his career and education by working as a manager for Ward and Peavey Company, both fortune 500 companies, and earning his BA and MBA from CULA. He has owned and operated several liquor stores, dozens of rental properties, and computer businesses in the City of Milwaukee.

Currently Mr. Chesser is the owner of the MIL-TOWN Trademark and MIL-TOWN Apparel and Fashions store located at 3620 W. Villard Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53209. The store provides custom printing on virtually any garment and will customize any apparel into a piece of art or a walking advertisement.
