Subject: Mac Shack

Hey there –

Mac Shack was ordered to close last week due to low score of 44%. They are now open and sitting with a C grade.

Just a heads up that Ashraf Mustafa, owner, in the past has remained operating for quite a long time after he was issued Order to Cease for lack of FD license for which Pat has issued several citations. He has also removed Closure placard on several occasions, and has moved letter grade to a less conspicuous window.

He recently expressed interest in refuting any citations/fees with management that were placed upon him. If you come into communication with him regarding this matter, stand firm and make sure he understands his responsibilities as operator and the intent and purpose for licensing and sanitation grading system. I have explained all this in detail to him already, but he likes to debate and defend his case.

I am requesting he should by no means be given ANY exceptions to citations/fees and should be under common council review at time of renewal for blatant disobedience of health department authority orders on several occasions as well as a low score closure.

If you need additional info for clarification on the matter, please let me know.
Thank you!
