RE: Police Report #J9L1TZ0CH3

Dear City Clerk:

Pursuit to Section 893.80(1), Wis. Stats, I, Marcus K Ransom (claimant), hereby presents this claim within 120 days of the event which occurred on June 21, 2023.

Claimant is seeking relief in the amount of $20,000. This amount includes $9607.81 for car repair damages (see attached), $5196.95 for compensatory damages and $5195.24 for punitive damages.

Compensatory damages are being sought to compensate for the hardship (70-year old claimant) experienced due the total destruction of his personal means of transportation. As a result of the total destruction of transportation, claimant was subjected to the hardship of walking further distances on hip replacements (both sides) with the left hip being in a pre-operative state. Not to mention, the additional hardship of performing normal necessities of life. Claimant also was unable to take advantage of job opportunities which required personal transportation.

Punitive damages are being sought to encourage training for Milwaukee Police Officers to call off pursuits for minor violations. Nowhere in the police report (received by claimant) does it state that if suspect(s) were allowed to flee would present a danger to human life or cause serious injury. The suspect(s) violation of having stolen a vehicle does not give rise to the conclusion of immediate danger to officers or to the public should the suspect(s) remain at large.

According to the Milwaukee Police Department, "justification for engaging in a vehicle pursuit must be based on facts known by the police member when the decision is made to engage in a pursuit. Information not established as fact at the time the pursuit was initiated cannot be considered later in determining whether the pursuit was justified." Claimant offers that a stolen vehicle is not a serious enough of an offense to justify the start of a pursuit and definitely not to continue with a pursuit which resulted in total destruction of claimant's vehicle.

On June 21, 2023, at approximately 7:55 pm, claimant's legally parked vehicle was struck and completely destroyed by a stolen vehicle being pursued by Milwaukee Police members. The event occurred near the corner of 37th and Highland Blvd, in Milwaukee, WI (please see attached police report). Police report fails to mention when and where the pursuit started or the justification for doing so. However, it appears clear that the decision to initiate (and continue) pursuit did not amount to the level of seriousness to do so.

Respectfully,

Marcus K Ransom
