Av. This was in regards to a complaint of "entertainment machines" being operated without the proper Public Entertainment License (PEP) from the City.

On arrival I did observe 2 machines, illuminated and appeared to be in operating condition with bar stools in front of them. I introduced myself to the agent (Joga S. GILL) and advised him of the reason for my investigation. GILL provided me with a cover sheet from a company called Liberty Games and a contact card for a Brent Galloway. GILL stated he was advised by the salesman that it was legal to own the machines in Wisconsin. I advised GILL this was correct, however, he would still need a PEP license in order to have them operational. GILL stated he understood and would apply immediately for the proper license.
