

BY ALD. PEREZ

Resolution recognizing and congratulating Trane Commercial Systems and Services on its 100th anniversary.

WHEREAS,

TRANE COMMERCIAL SYSTEMS AND SERVICES

marked its 100th anniversary during a special celebration called the Milwaukee Tranefest at 234 W. Florida St. on October 10th, 2013; and

WHEREAS, James Trane and his son, Reuben, began manufacturing operations in Wisconsin and incorporated The Trane Company in 1913, and Reuben's invention of a convector radiator firmly established the company's innovative reputation by 1925; and

WHEREAS, Reuben Trane's original idea of using technology to give people relief from the summer heat has come full circle, growing the company into a multifaceted business that helps make life easier, more comfortable and efficient for homeowners and businesses around the world; and

WHEREAS, The Great Northern Plains District of Trane celebrated 100 years during Milwaukee Tranefest on October 10, 2013, which included three technical sessions and the Trane Products Showcase, featuring new and redesigned products and systems at the Milwaukee Trane Sales Office; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Common Council of the City of Milwaukee herewith congratulates Trane Commercial Systems and Services on its 100th anniversary and on its commitment to exceptional service, quality and reliability; and, be it FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to Trane and the organizers of the Milwaukee Tranefest.

Introduced by Common Council member José G. Pérez and approved by all members of the Milwaukee Common Council on October 15, 2013.