

Gregory Spanos, CCIM
SixSibs Capital Corporation
Managing Director – Real Estate

Greg Spanos is Managing Director of Real Estate for SixSibs Capital Corporation. SixSibs Capital is an investment firm founded by the White Family – owners of Rite Hite Corporation. Greg is responsible for SixSibs’ real estate investment, development, construction, financing, and property management.

Prior to SixSibs Capital, Greg was Managing Director at Janko Group LLC where he was responsible for the firm’s acquisition, development, and disposition activities across multiple product types and markets. Throughout his career, Greg has underwritten, acquired, developed, financed, and sold in excess of $1 billion of US real estate assets. Greg is personally invested in a variety of real estate projects including hotels, office/medical office properties, and residential property thus bringing a unique ownership perspective.

Greg earned B.A from Trinity College in Hartford, CT where he played both baseball and football and was President of the Student Athletic Advisory Committee. Greg is currently a member of the Trinity College Alumni Association. In 2008, he completed a Real Estate Development Certificate Program at Cornell University and in 2010, Greg earned a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation. He is an active member of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) and National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP).

Greg was a member of the 2002-2004 Greek National Baseball Team. He resides in suburban Chicago with his wife Shannon and their four children. Greg and his family regularly volunteer at the Greater Chicago Food Depository and Feed My Starving Children. In his personal time, he enjoys coaching youth sports, travel, reading, golf, downhill skiing, and platform tennis.
