- 8. On 06/17/12 at 12:16 pm, Milwaukee police were dispatched to a Battery complaint at St Francis Hospital. Police spoke with the complainant who stated she was a dancer at the Solid Gold located at 813 S 1st Street and that on 06/18/12, at 2:00 am, she was approached by another dancer who punched her multiple times in the face without provocation, causing pain and bruising without her consent. Officers did observe bruising to the victim's right eye. On 06/22/12 at 4:46 pm, follow up was conducted and police spoke with the manager, Ryan Urban, who stated he was at the club on the night of the incident and that he was not aware of anything taking place, but that the complainant had appeared to be highly intoxicated, and as a result, the bartender drove her home. Police spoke with the alleged suspect, Carmen Gely, who stated she was working that night and that the complainant was extremely intoxicated and that they did get into an argument, but that Gely never touched the complainant. Gely provided no witnesses to police and a citation was issued for assault and battery.

9. On 02/10/2013 at 9:25pm, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to a battery complaint at Columbia St Mary's Hospital. The investigation revealed the victim; an exotic dancer at Solid Gold Gentlemen's Club, 813 S 1st St was attacked in her dressing room after closing by six fellow co-workers. The attack caused a laceration under her right eye that required adhesive glue to close. The bouncer and manager said they observed "Mona" strike the victim in the face with a set of keys, which they believed caused the laceration. The victim was able to identify all suspects by their stage names that in turn helped the manager supply officers their correct names and dates of birth. The case was taken to the district attorneys office on 02/15/2013 for processing and pended to 03/20/2013 at which time the case was no processed due to the victim not showing up.

=====
10. On 02/22/2014 Milwaukee police responded to a fight complaint at 813 South 1st Street (Solid Gold Gentleman's Club). Investigation revealed two patrons of the business were involved in an altercation in the parking lot after leaving the business. No violations were observed and no citations or other reports were written.

11. On 09/08/2014 Milwaukee police overheard gunshots in the area of South 2nd Street and West Walker Street. As the officers drove past the parking lot of Solid Gold Gentleman's Club (813 South 1st Street), they observed two subjects. One subject was bent over at the waist while the other subject held a handgun to the first subjects head. Both parties were arrested and it was later determined that the subject holding the handgun had been a patron of the business prior to walking outside and becoming involved in a fight with the other subject. A vehicle parked in the lot of the business as well as a building across the street from the business were damaged by the gunfire. Milwaukee police incident report #142510006 filed.
