Good Afternoon Jim,

Your email has been received. From the photo provided, this food truck is legally parked if outside of the posted hours of 2am-6pm and if they are moving every 6hrs. Your understanding of the ordinance is correct and impressive. You probably won't like that the City does not currently have a "Block Face Ordinance" which would require vehicles to move off of the block face after parking for the allotted time therefore, the moving of the truck a few feet does constitute moving the vehicle. Please request the block face ordinance via your Alderpersons Office if interested. Since you have brought this to our attention, Parking Enforcement will increase patrols in this area. We always welcome assistance from our citizens so please feel free to report violations online @ <https://mke.citizencomplaints.org/>.

Respectfully,

Ald. Bauman,

A food truck (Taqueria El Tizne) has been parking along the west side of Young St. at Catalano Square for over three weeks, at least 6-7 days per week. It's taking advantage of the customers frequenting the popular Third Ward Beer Garden at Catalano Square.

In my tenure here in the Third Ward, we have rarely had issues with food trucks and vendors in the right of way.

So, I'm not totally up to speed on regulations including more recent changes made by the Common Council. But I believe they may be in violations of some ordinance provisions. I'll describe their general mode of operation below based on input we are getting from patrons and operators of the Beer Garden.

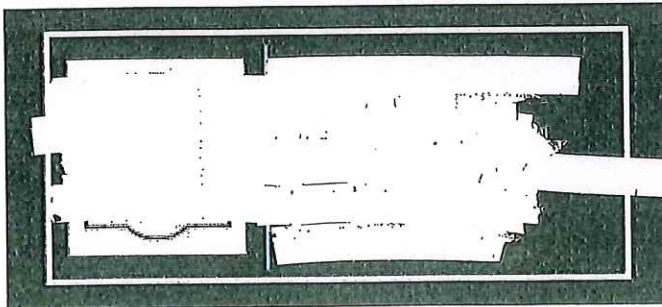

1. They arrive in mid-early AM and park in roughly the same spot each day (see night picture). The parking there is 2-HR time limits, no meters.
2. They've been observed parking personal vehicles on either side of the truck and moving the truck once in a while. I believe that's part of the ordinance to move every six hours and/or obey posted regulations.
3. They've been parked from 10am to 10pm on this face block on a regular basis.
4. The grass in the tree border (between sidewalk and curb) is showing signs of wear and tear due to foot traffic to the window. Who is responsible for repairing that damage?
5. We have created a welcoming nighttime ambiance for and with the Beer Garden via canopy lights in the trees. As you can see from the photo, they turn on garish lighting to not only draw attention to their truck but to light up the east portion of the park via their lights. Ugly.

Based on my reading of the City's food truck regs, I think they are in parking violation of the policies as written, if not to their intent. Moving it a few feet every couple of hours is not the intent of the ordinance.

My nearby bricks and mortar restaurants are not happy about this. Club Charlie's and Riley's Social House are nearby food options that are advertised at the Beer Garden for food patronage.

Thanks for your attention to this matter and I've cc'd I believe the relevant departments responsible for regulating food trucks. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Good morning all,

I am sorry for the delay. I have attached a copy of the license for the truck involved. We stopped by the truck last week and went over all of the ordinances we could enforce on them/their truck. The couple informed us that they were going to move the truck. Officers did drive past the area over the weekend and have not seen the truck parked in the same spot. I will follow up with Jim today and see if there are still complaints from the Third Ward. Please let me know if there are any questions.

Thanks

All,

FYI we are documenting video evidence from the past weekend that the food truck is not moving every six hours at all. On Saturday and Sunday this past weekend they were parked in the same spot for over 10 hours. Here's an image from this morning where they parked at 9 AM, which would put them in violation at 3 PM.m today. We want this food truck to obey all ordinances.

Also, their patrons' litter overflowed our garbage cans this weekend and are basically killing the grass in the curb area.

Thanks a always for your attention this matter.
