My husband, _____, and I, _____ vehemently oppose the licensing of the Avalon theater as a Class B tavern and Public Entertainment Premises. We can see no good coming from this action. The construction of the Dwell was also opposed by most of the inhabitants of this neighborhood, yet there it sits, blocking the sun, taking all the parking and giving little...nothing....to the people it most inconveniences. I live directly across the alley and truly wish it were never built. There's not enough room for all these people. Now a new business wants to move into a neighborhood that already has many, many bars, taverns, eateries and restaurants that serve liquor, with no where to park except in our neighborhoods.

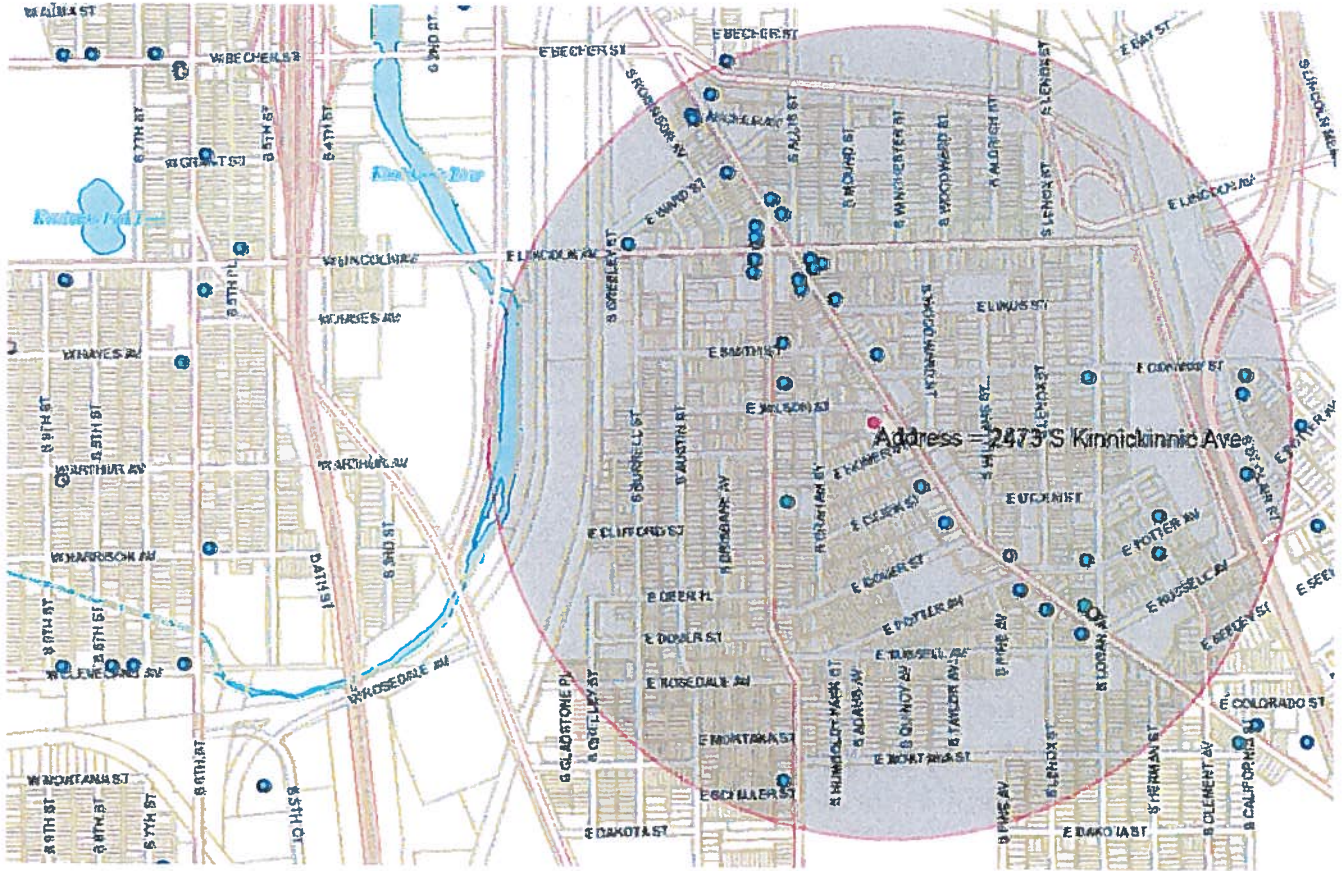

Our alley was once safe enough for my young grandchildren to ride their bikes. This is no longer the case. The traffic is non-stop and can even make it difficult for us to simply take out our trash or unload groceries. Adding yet another large business would no doubt cause many cars to cruise through, looking for alternate parking. The supposed "secured" garage of the Dwell has been compromised mutple times and tenants property has been stolen. I would call that an increase in crime.

There is already bottles, containers and cigarete butt litter from patrons of the Bay View Bowl, Johnny's Club Carnival and other businesses. The patrons leaving bars and restaurants in the area are often loud and obnoxious, unaware that their voices carry in the night air and disturb people in their homes. Would one more alcohol-selling business make the area cleaner and quieter? Assuredly not.

This area needs places of beauty and culture, places where children can learn and create. Walker's Point Center for the Arts on 5th street is a great example. The community gardens near Howard Avenue is another example. Can we not have leaders in this area with heart, courage and vision, desiring better for our area - our lives - than just more 23 year-olds from Brookfield and Whitefish Bay "slumming" the "cool" 'hood and spending their cash?

Enough is enough. Bay View does not need or want this.

Sincerely

3. On 01/17/08 at 3:00 pm, Milwaukee police, along with an agent from the Department of Revenue Alcohol & Tobacco conducted a license premise check at 2691 S 7th Street. Agent King requested to see the last two years of the liquor, cigarette and beer invoices but the owner, Susan Salo, was unable to provide these invoices. Salo stated she has owned the bar for the last 5 years and the previous owner "Hank" still was involved in the business. Salo stated she would contact him in regards to the invoices. After Salo spoke with Hank, she stated the invoices were with the accountant. Salo admitted to purchasing her liquor and cigarettes from Oklahoma Liquor stating they are cheaper there. Special Agent King advised Salo that it's illegal to purchase these items from Oklahoma Liquor and that Salo could be charged with a misdemeanor crime. Salo further stated to officers that she is not involved in the business on a day-to-day basis. A total of 67 packs of cigarettes, 71 bottles of opened liquor and 48 bottles of sealed liquor were seized for un-invoiced purchase. 14 of those open bottles were found to be contaminated and were destroyed on scene by the bartender.
