As owner operator Mr. Thompson has more than 25 years of marketing and promotions experience, much of that time spent with Miller Brewing Company. As an executive with MBCo., he was responsible for identifying and coordinating activities for various Miller brands. Mr. Thompson was able to identify consumer trends and develop marketing strategies to build brand image awareness.

Among his more successful programs:

Gallery of Greats: a 20 year old program that showcased African American achievers in an annual calendar. The calendar theme varied each year. Mr. Thompson was responsible for identifying the themes, selecting the essayist identifying the individuals included in the calendar, while coordinating a national unveiling of the original portraits featured in the calendar. Mr.. Thompson also was responsible for overseeing calendar production.

Flyte Tyme Thurgood Marshall Celebrity Golf Classic: The Thurgood Marshall fund provides full tuition for academically gifted African American students attending historically Black public colleges and universities who might otherwise not be able to afford a college education. Mr.. Thompson developed the concept for the Classic, hired a tournament manager to handle the details of the event, helped secure other sponsorships, and invited music moguls Jimmy "Jam" Harris and Terry Lewis as event host. The golf classic in its first year, year raised over $100,000 for the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship fund.

NAACP" Show Your Love Benefit Concert: Mr.. Thompson developed this program to provide MBCo. with value added exposure at the organization's annual meeting. He was responsible for hiring the promoter who handled all aspects of the concert from selecting the talent, to negotiating contracts, handling staging, catering, etc. This major fund-raising event at the NAACP's annual conference from 1993-1999 was highly successful.

In addition, Mr. Thompson has successfully operated a festival food vendor business, Charlie's choice, for the past 10 years. Charlie's Choice specializes in offering hot catfish sandwiches to festival attendees in Wisconsin and Indiana. The business has grown dramatically. Mr. Thompson successfully operated a restaurant/ nightclub that specialized in live entertainment in Milwaukee (Alfie's) for six years. His past experiences arms him with the skills, knowledge and commitment necessary to develop and sell J. T. Bones, Inc.
