

Larry Miller, (District 5), who was elected in April 2009, is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and National Louis University. He has an undergraduate degree in education, history, and political science and a masters' degree in education leadership. Larry was a teacher in MPS for 16 years, having taught high school U.S. history, citizenship, world geography, world history, economics, political science, photography, video production, and physical science. He also was an administrator for two years. Larry is an adjunct for the Marquette College of Education, teaching Schooling in a Diverse Society. Larry Miller is an editor of Rethinking Schools, a nationally prominent publisher of educational materials that remains firmly committed to equity and to the vision that public education is central to the creation of a humane, caring, multiracial democracy. While published for a broad audience, Rethinking Schools emphasizes problems facing urban schools, particularly issues of race. Both of Larry's children, Nathaniel and Craig Miller, are MPS graduates. His wife of 38 years is Ellen Bravo.
