Denise Borzynski, 119 E. Norwich St., is in opposition to the license.

Kelly Murphy, 4021 S. Burrell St., directly behind the bar's volleyball court. She says that problems have increased with the current licensee and she has the same concerns as the previous objectors. Ms. Murphy also says that women in bikinis have washed motorcycles in front of the establishment. Ms. Murphy also says that a man named Rodney came to her house on October 31st representing the bar. She says that Rodney is the only person who has represented the bar to her.

Pat Murphy, 4021 S. Burrell St., husband of Kelly Murphy. He is in opposition to the license.

Atty. Schrimpf says that the city ordinance prohibits the wearing of bathing suits in the public highways of the city. Ms. Murphy says that she called the police about the bikini motorcycle washes, but was told that the wearing of string bikinis was acceptable.

Atty. Haney says that Rodney Lass was not sent by the bar, but that a different person was sent to talk to the neighbors. He also says that the licensee says she was at the bar herself on October 31st and was answering all calls to the bar.

Ald. Zielinski asked what would be done differently from the previous year by the applicant. Atty. Haney says that the applicant will now be the contact person for the bar and Mr. Lass will no longer be involved. He also says that the bar recently spent $2000 on new netting for the volleyball court.

The applicant says that she has not received any calls from any neighbors and that she wants a good relationship with her neighbors.

Ald. Zielinski moves renewal with a 45-day suspension and denial of the permanent extension of the Class "B" Tavern license (patio and volleyball court).

*04 MANJEE, Habib, Agent for "Lady Bug Club, LLC", Class "B" Tavern and Tavern Amusement (Cabaret/Nite Club) renewal applications with change of entertainment for "Lady Bug Club/618 Live On Water" at 622 N. Water Street. (Expires 12/20/09)
Special Letter*

Applicant at the table, 3265 Dartmouth Dr., Brookfield. Atty. David Halbrooks and Atty. Matt Lerner at the table as counsel. Ald. Bauman and Captain also at the table. Nicholas Merado, Director of Operations for the club.

Atty. Halbrooks objects to the reading in of the police report since it is not a neutral document. The police department is opposing the renewal of the license, and it cannot be neutral and in opposition. He also objects to any video submitted into the record as he was not allowed to see the video in its entirety before the committee meeting. Ald. Bohl says that only items 23 through 40 on the police report will be considered.

Ald. Zielinski moves to make a copy of the motion sent to committee members requesting certain items on the police report be eliminated from consideration by the committee. Prevailed 5-0. (Exhibit 1)

Ald. Bauman objects to any testimony not based on first-hand experience. The chair agreed. Atty. Halbrooks objected to the objection.

Brandon Robbins, 3147 N. 45th St. victim of a shooting that is detailed in item 39 of the police report. He says that he was never in the club the night he was shot and was only downtown to pick up his brother. Mr. Robbins says that he never gave a statement to police and that the police only took a statement from his brother, who had been at the club.

Atty. Lerner objects to Ald. Bauman questioning witnesses. The objection was acknowledged and Ald. Bauman was allowed to question witnesses.

Neighborhood objectors:

Ben Wesson, 514 N. Water St., lives on the second floor of the building. He is opposed to the license.

Don Arenson, 608 N. Broadway, is opposed to the license.

Mary Jungers, 608 N. Broadway, is opposed to the license.

Kevin Reardon, 6060 S. 92nd St., property owner of 624 and 628 N. Water St. He is concerned about continuation of the license, but cannot give testimony that is not hearsay.

Captain Patrick Mitchell, District One. He says that the police department is in objection to the renewal of the license.

Adam Stephens, Asst. City Attorney and member of the Community Prosecution Unit who works with District One, appearing.

Ald. Kovac asks Atty. Stephens why the nuisance designation has not been applied to the location. Atty. Stephens says that he is not familiar enough with the calls for service and the PA-33s for the location to say why the designation has been has not been given to the location.
