04 SANFILIPPO, Betina A, Agent for "BANQUET SERVICES, LLC", Class B Tavern and Public Entertainment Premises License Renewal Applications for "VILLA FILOMENA" at 1119 N MARSHALL St. (Expires 7/25/2018)

The applicant stated there have been no changes to their operations. She stated there is a tent that is used outside and amplified music is used outside only during ceremonies. She stated most of the events occur on Saturday nights. She stated that she has tried to work with the condo next door, by reaching out to the owners regarding the music. She stated the doors need to be shut at 9 PM. She stated she encourages clients to end their events at 11 PM and they stop selling alcohol 1 hour prior to the end of each event. She suggested not allowing people outside after 10 PM.

Appearing with the applicant:

Molly Robinette 1119 N Marshall St

Individual also present:

Ald. Bauman stated this is a residential neighborhood, not an entertainment district. He stated this issue came up 10 years ago, but now it's back. He added the residents are entitled to quiet enjoyment and the premises must conform. He recommended nonrenewal unless the applicant is willing to stipulate to ending all music at 10 PM and no outdoor music. He recommended a change in the plan of operation to end outside music at 6 PM and stop all music at 10 PM daily.

Individuals present in opposition:

Martin Tierney 1111 N Marshall St stated everything was fine until 2015 when the music became louder and they tried calling numerous times. He added he can hear the music in his living room while watching tv with the windows closed. He stated he starting calling the police to complain. He stated the 2017 application stated there will be no amplified music, but there is amplified music. He added that every other weekend amplified music goes past 10 PM. He requested that the music stop at 10 PM, below 50 decibels outside, 30 decibels inside his unit, no outdoor music, and keep all doors and windows closed.

Janet Tierney 1111 N Marshall St stated she lives in a 44 unit condo building and she has called the police when the noise gets too loud. She stated that she spoke with a community liaison officer and he reached out to the applicant. She added that she agrees with the previous speaker about the noise in their condo.

Brian Schwanagen 1111 N Marshall St #905 stated he agrees with the previous speakers. He added that he saw a tent being erected with amplified music. He added that the 50 ft Rule is not in effect at the premises. He stated that the music can be heard in his condo.

Doug Downey 1114 N Marshall St #202 stated he moved in in February and noticed a problem in May. He stated there was no music, but the patrons outside were being so loud he could hear them in his apartment.

Ald. Kovac moved to amend the plan of operation to end outdoor music at 6 PM, windows and doors must remain closed while music is being played, must be responsive to neighbor complaints, and indoor music must be turned down at 10 PM, and end at 11 PM. (Prevailed 4-0)

Ald. Kovac moved approval as amended with a warning letter based on neighborhood testimony. (Prevailed 4-0)
