

My name is Apexa Patel, and I have been a local business owner for 26 years in Milwaukee. My husband Vijay and I began in 1995 working at Honey Dip Donuts on 27th St and National Ave. In 2015 we opened Indian Village Restaurant in Greenfield. Since then, we opened a second location in Waukesha, and most recently have opened International Variety Restaurant & Bar (IVR Bar) on Milwaukee's Northside. Since my start in the Milwaukee restaurant industry, I have employed over 100 people, and managed the day to day and long term operations of four independent restaurants.
