

Conor Ward

Conor Ward is Senior Corporate Counsel at WEC Business Services LLC, where he advises the various subsidiaries of WEC Energy Group, Inc. on regulatory and compliance matters involving the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), including FERC's regulation of public utilities, natural gas pipelines and storage providers, and hydroelectric facilities.

Prior to joining WEC, Mr. Ward served as Assistant General Counsel at GridLiance, an independent transmission company, where he advised executives with respect to state and federal regulatory issues. Mr. Ward has also represented a variety of energy clients in private practice before state utility commissions and FERC. Mr. Ward began his career as an Attorney Advisor in the FERC's Office of the General Counsel.

Mr. Ward is an active member of the Energy Bar Association at the national and regional levels. He has previously served as Treasurer of the Energy Bar Association, and as Treasurer of the Charitable Foundation of the Energy Bar Association. In addition, he previously served as President of the Midwest Chapter of Energy Bar Association.

Mr. Ward holds a J.D. and a M.A. from Georgetown University. He received his B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of California Riverside.