> I oppose the renewal of the Malt beverage license for Milwaukee Foods at 2903 W. Clybourn St. Milwaukee. For all of these years I have watched and shopped at this store. I like the people and think it serves an important role here on the west side of Merrill Park. My hope was that I could say something to support the store's beer license but I cannot. My experience is that people very naturally congregate in front of the store and that is not all bad. I see friends of mine from the neighborhood by the door and stop to share a smile and kind word. There are fights from time to time and begging. Public intoxication occurs. The stores sidewalk lights are not on often these days. The people going to Milwaukee Foods approach in relative darkness. This is how it is now.

> Having lived at the address you see above for 20 years I know all to well the eb and flow of the seasons and how they effect the loitering outside the door. As a human being myself I like to talk with my friends and buy a can of soda and catch up on the times, All people like that. With Covid-19 I wish I could have done more of it. Talking about the Brewers and the rest is fun but doing it in front of the store for some reason just attracts trouble. It has to stop but it is the most natural thing for a fellow like me to do.

LICENSE PREMISE REPORT

Hudson, Demetrious J 026335

04/25/2021

This report is written by Police Officer Demetrius HUDSON assigned to District 3 Modified Early shit, Community Prosecution Unit.

On April 25th, 2021 at approximately 12:57 PM, my partner Police Officer Taylor Carloni (Sq: 3271) and I (Sq: 3272) conducted a Business Check at the location of 2903 W. Clybourn Street (The Milwaukee Food Market), in the city and county of Milwaukee, Wisconsin for recent neighborhood complaints of "Drug Dealing," and "Loitering."

We spoke with the owner, identified as Pankaj N. Patel (W/M 12/16/1972) who stated the corner store has been opened for approximately 15 years. I informed PATEL that people in the neighborhood are calling on the store stating that there is drug dealing. PATEL stated he works closely with the bicycle squads and reports anything to them, if need be. PATEL stated that he will tell people who loiter outside his store to leave the location if they are there for too long. Additionally, PATEL informed us that the people will tell him to mind his business and because it isn't safe, he will leave it at that. PATEL stated, typically, guys will be across the street loitering but not in front of the store.

I did check and the store has multiple "No Loitering Signs."

PATEL was given a contact card.

This concludes my report

On Friday, 01-15-21, Squad 3255 (P.O. WEILAND and I) was dispatched at 5:13 PM to a Theft From Person at 2903 W Clybourn St (Milwaukee Foods Grocery and Deli). Upon arrival I spoke to the victim outside identified as Nathaniel C. HENNING (B/M 03-26-90) who stated an unknown younger black male approached him from behind while he was checking out at the front of the store and stole his firearm from his right pocket that was visibly sticking out of his pocket. HENNING stated the suspect then ran out of the store running southbound on N 29th St from W Clybourn St and he ran after the suspect. HENNING stated the suspect while running turned around and pointed the stolen firearm at HENNING at which point HENNING stopped chasing the suspect and the suspect kept running southbound. HENNING stated the suspect was initially inside the store with two other B/M juveniles who were wearing all black. HENNING stated the suspect who took his firearm was a B/M, approximately 16-18 years old, dark complexion, low haircut, wearing a black hoodie, black sweats, and white Nike Air Max with black trim. HENNING stated the firearm that was stolen was a Springfield XDM 9, Serial #GM758976. See P.O. WEILAND's supplemental report regarding an interview with the cashier who witnessed the incident.

The incident was all captured on surveillance cameras from the store and I was able to obtain the following suspect description from the video:

Suspect Description:

B/M approximately 16-18 years old, medium build, low haircut, wearing blue sweatshirt with red and yellow writing/logo, black sweatpants with white writing, white Nike Airmax with black trim.

The video surveillance detailed that the suspect approaches HENNING from behind while he was checking out his items. The suspect runs up and grabs the firearm from HENNING's right pocket and then proceeds to run out of the front door of the store and then southbound on N 29th St. The video shows HENNING give chase behind the suspect then we observed the suspect turn around and point the stolen firearm at HENNING. HENNING then stops running and the suspects proceeds to keep running southbound on N 29th St.

Squad 3252 (P.O. KUNYA and P.O. MADRIGAL) responded to the scene and P.O. KUNYA was able to burn a DVD copy of the video surveillance. See P.O. KUNYA's CST supplemental report regarding. P.O. WEILAND placed a copy of the video on MPD Inventory INV#21001978

I notified Lt GRANT at District #3 who instructed the investigation was ours to conduct.

This case is pending,.
