Investigation revealed that three patrons had ordered some drinks and paid for same with a suspicious fifty-dollar bill. When police arrived, two out of the three patrons were still on scene and were questioned regarding the fifty-dollar bill. Further investigation revealed one of these patrons to be underage. One patron received a citation for Possession/Conception of Alcohol by Minor and the other received a citation for Contributing to the Delinquency. The suspicious bill was placed on inventory.

3. On 11/25/06 at 12:50 am, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 5048 N 35th Street for a fight complaint. Investigation revealed that a male patron was arguing with two dancers in the back of the tavern when the male patron threw a glass at one of the dancers face, causing a laceration and chipping her front tooth. The injured dancer then grabbed a knife and chased the male out of the bar where he fled in his auto. She was treated at a nearby hospital for the cuts to her face. Officers check for the suspect at several locations, but were unable to locate the known suspect. A check of CCAP revealed no charges were ever issued.
4. On 01/02/07 at 11:50 pm, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 5048 N 35th Street for a Battery complaint. Investigation revealed that a male patron got into a verbal argument with one of the dancers who was picking up tips that were left on the stage after a dance. This patron had pushed the dancer who fell backward and had struck the patron in the face with her shoes that she had in her hands, as she fell. The patron received a small cut to his face due to the fact he was wearing glasses when he was hit by the shoes and refused medical treatment. This patron was argumentative and uncooperative with the officers. Officers did speak with the licensee, Allan Nelson, regarding this incident and advised him that a tavern report was going to be filed.
5. On 02-18-07 at 10:05 pm, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to a suspicious person at 5048 N 35th Street. Officers spoke to the caller who stated she was a dancer at The Cheetah Club and was performing a lap dance for a customer when this customer propositioned her to perform a sex act in the club. She refused and this customer only paid her $2.00 for the lap dance, which cost $12.00. The subject then claimed to be a police officer and began causing a scene. Police were called and it was learned that the subject was NOT a police officer and only said he was to calm the situation down. The subject was cited for disorderly conduct.
