

Deonta Duncan is the founder and CEO of Thorough Family Associations (TFA), a company that provides housing and trucking services across the United States. Mr. Duncan was able to expand TFA by providing exceptional customer service and building lasting partnerships with reputable organizations. When Mr. Duncan is not managing his business, he is spending his time volunteering in the community.

Mr. Duncan has been a successful business owner for 8+ years. Through his journey, his greatest lessons came from his brief struggles. He is transparent about his growth and embraces the ups and the downs. Mr. Duncan is adamant about being a lifelong learner.

Success should never stop growth.

"It's okay to fall- understand why you did- then get back up.

Once you've grasped why you fell, you won't fall that way again."

Deonta Duncan