

The background of the slide is a close-up photograph of several large, spherical purple flower heads. Each head is composed of many small, individual flowers. Several bees are visible, some on the flower heads and others in flight, adding a sense of natural activity to the scene. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of purple and green.

Lasry

Site Photos, Material and Plant Selections

Existing Front Landscape

- New landscape plantings proposed for front walk and house foundation
- No changes are proposed for front walk layout

Existing Back Landscape

- Existing brick patio to be removed
- New tumbled bluestone patio & walkway to side of house
- New back foundation plantings

Existing Back Landscape

- New vegetation screening between properties
- Walkway access to driveway

Back Patio & Walk Paving
– Tumbled Bluestone

Evergreen Shrubs

- 'Green Velvet' Boxwood (Top)
- 'Green Mountain' Boxwood (Bottom)

Shrubs

- 'Tiger Eye' Sumac (left)
- 'Blue Shadow' Fothergilla (right)

Shrubs

- Chokeberry (various sizes) (top)
- 'Annabelle' Hydrangea (bottom)

Perennials

- 'Bowles Golden' Sedge (top left)
- 'Summer Beauty' Allium (top right)
- 'Krossa Regal' Hosta (bottom left)
- 'Thundercloud' Sedum (bottom right)

Perennials

- 'Amer. Goldrush Rudbeckia (top)
- 'Storm Cloud' Amsonia (bottom)

Vines

- Boston Ivy (existing - top)
- Climbing Hydrangea (bottom)

