

Statement of Abatement

In response to the indecent which occurred on 11/22/2023

- On the night of the incident, the trained employee cooperated with police by providing them all of the information regarding the shoplifter and items stolen.
- My employee showed CCTV footage of the incident.
- After this incident, this particular shoplifter did not return to my business.

In response to the indecent which occurred on 03/08/2024, 03/10/2024, and 03/17/2024

- These incidents involved the same group of individuals.
- I complied with the police by providing them all of the information and the CCTV footage regarding these incidents.
- After the third incident, I was able to track down the home where these individuals lived. I informed police and they responded to the home and were able to successfully arrest the individuals.
- As a result of the arrest, the individuals are now enrolled into youth development programs to improve the prospects of these individuals becoming responsible adults in the future.
- I have also had an additional dead-bolt lock installed on the cabin door to enhance the security of my employee.
- I have had no problems with these individuals since the arrest.

Beyond these police incidents that have been recorded, I have had no issues with crime or safety.

The actions taken demonstrate that Gas N Go Enterprises, Inc does and will always prioritize community safety.
