The Milwaukee Police Department's investigation regarding this application revealed the following:

1. On 08/21/18 at 2:27pm, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 6798 W. Appleton Avenue (American Inn Motel) for a dead on entry complaint. Officers interviewed the owner of the motel who was cooperative during the investigation and supplied officers with video surveillance of the time surrounding the incident. The owner also informed the officers that when he is away from the motel, he constantly watches the security cameras from his telephone and has an ID scanner which he is going to install at the check-in counter. This device will record who rents from him in order to keep a "banned" list for himself and other motels in the area. Detectives determined that the death investigation was not suspicious and the cause was undetermined at the time of this report. An Incident Report was filed (172330108)

2. On 01/12/19 at 3:00pm, a subject walked into the Third District to report his vehicle was stolen. Investigation revealed that the subject was staying at a hotel, with a female, whom he only knows by first name, at 6798 W. Appleton Avenue. The subject fell asleep and when he woke up, noticed that the female and his vehicle were missing. The subject stated that the female rented the room, so police called and retrieved the females information from the front desk employee.

3. On 05/09/19 at 6:16am, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 6798 W. Appleton Avenue for a welfare check. Upon arrival, officers observed a female on the sidewalk waving her arms and making noises. The hotel manager led officers to the females room where they found the door open and suspected narcotics inside. The female was conveyed to the hospital.
4. On 07/13/19 at 7:30pm, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 6766 W. Appleton Avenue for an accident. Investigation revealed that after the accident occurred, the vehicles moved to 6798 W. Appleton Avenue where an argument ensued with the driver of one of the vehicles pulling out a gun and pointing it at the other driver. A hotel employee was able to provide surveillance footage of the incident.
5. On 12/19/19 at 10:03am, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 6798 W. Appleton Avenue for a shooting complaint. Upon arrival, one of the occupants in the room stated that she and her boyfriend were playing with a gun and it went off striking the victim, rendering him pulseless/not breathing. Investigation revealed that the occupant/suspect had been renting the room for the past two weeks and the victim was a daily visitor to the room and had been staying on a nightly basis. The occupant was arrested for her involvement in the incident.
6. On 01/01/20 at 4:00am, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 6798 W. Appleton Avenue for a sick/injured complaint. Upon arrival, officers interviewed the caller/manager who stated that he received a call at the front desk from one of the occupants in the hotel saying that they heard a weird noise from the room directly below them. The manager went to the room to investigate and after receiving no response from the hotel room door, the manager opened the room to find the occupant unresponsive, so he called police. The subject, who still had a syringe in her arm, received three doses of NARCAN and was transported to the hospital. Inside the room there were various items of drug paraphernalia.
7. On 02/20/20 at 1:31pm, Milwaukee Police conducted a meeting at the Seventh District with the applicant regarding the high calls for service and the shooting which occurred on 12/19/19. The applicant told police that he is now requiring identification for all guests staying in the room and if they catch anyone doing anything "suspicious" they would be put on a "Do Not Rent" list. This list is shared with his other hotels and the surrounding hotels in the vicinity. Other policy changes are that employees are going to require identification from persons seen entering a room more than once and he will now employ a security guard who will monitor the property. The applicant said that he and his wife will start splitting time between his other hotel and he was advised to come up with additional plans to combat the issues at his properties.
8. On 05/14/20 at 3:30am, Milwaukee Police were dispatched to 6798 W. Appleton Avenue for a sexual assault complaint. Investigation revealed that a female was abducted, taken to the hotel, and was sexually assaulted. The subject was able to go to the front desk and use the phone to call police.

This report is being written by P.O. Eliezer GONZALEZ-VALENTIN Assigned to District 7, Early Shift.

On Tuesday July 7th, 2020 at 10:43PM I along with P.O. Appleton Ave. Room #205, which is in the City and County of Milwaukee, WI.

Upon our arrival we were met by Milwaukee Fire Department (MFD) Engine 36 and Milwaukee Fire Department Medical (MFD) unit #13. Once we entered room #205 we saw an unresponsive white female later identified by WI identification card as Rebecca ARZAMENDI (F/W 2-2-1982). MFD quickly began performing Advance Circulation Life Support (ACLS) on ARZAMENDI. The boyfriend of ARZAMENDI later identified by WI temporary paper identification as JEREMY HOCH (M/W 7-18-1978) was also inside the room. After several attempts of ACLS, MFD called time of death of ARZAMENDI's at 11:04 PM.

Officer DANZTLER submitted an incident notification and Criminal Investigation Bureau Squad 9218 (SGT. Willaim BAKER) responded and took over investigation.

While on scene I was instructed to conduct a vehicle canvass of the location parking lot. None of the vehicles canvassed came back to ARZAMENDI nor HOCH. HOCH stated to Officers both he and ARZAMENDI walked to the location.

It should be noted that the working manager that day was identified as American Inn Motel manager Ram Jasti (M/W 08/25/1977). The business has a Provisional renewal license that was issued 6-4-2020. Licensee per www.cityofmilwaukee.gov website was listed to Harjinder SINGH, (414) 379-1742.

Chambers St. COLLINS would not state who they bought the heroin from. COLLINS stated after CONNER used the heroin, she passed out next to her as they were sitting outside of 6731 W. Keefe Ave. Pkwy.

COLLINS stated they were staying at the American Inn hotel located at 6798 W. Appleton Ave, room 112 prior to the incident. COLLINS stated after they left the hotel they were waiting for a ride on the grass and that's when CONNER overdosed. COLLINS could not provide any further information.

P.O. LLANAS stayed with CONNER as she was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital by MFD, MED 5, red shift. Lt. Nathan KING was the acting supervisor.

Interview with Kumar S. RAM (American Inn Manager)

I spoke with the manager at the American Inn identified as Kumar S. RAM (w/m 08-25-77) who stated the females rented the room with another male last night and checked out this morning. RAM stated he did observe CONNER and COLLINS sitting outside on the grass. RAM stated they told him they were waiting for a ride which he had no problem with. RAM stated later he noticed the police and MFD arriving on scene.

She claimed to be a rape victim that occurred in Chicago and stated that the suspect had shot up a car on 19th/Atkinson regarding. She also claimed that she "sells pussy" and gets THC and cocaine for sex and she ended up at this hotel because a man and his girlfriend wanted to have sex but did not pay her. She also claimed to "sell pussy" to judges, lawyers and the Mayor of Rochester, NY.

She had a non-extraditable warrant out of Grand Rapids, MI.

A check of Wisconsin Service point showed she had not called 211 nor had any contact with any homeless service providers.

I did contact 211 who confirmed that there was no agreement to pay for her hotel room and they had no information on any housing/shelter requests for her. They did take her information and stated a housing assessment could be done on Monday for her but there was currently no shelter options. 211 also contacted Milwaukee Health Department who confirmed that her COVID quarantine ended today.

BUTLER did come to the door naked a second time and did come outside multiple times wearing nothing but undergarments, filming us and claiming to talk to a lawyer.

She became upset when I informed her that her COVID quarantine had ended and she was being requested to vacate this hotel room immediately per the innkeeper request and 211 would follow up with her. I also did contact Outreach Community Health Centers who had no immediate options for her and deferred to 211.

She did intentionally try to cough on JASTI, who had to physically run away from her to escape the cough.

While on scene, she did then call 911 at 13:27 hrs and stated she is a rape victim and she would file a lawsuit if we arrest her. We did advise her that Chicago PD would need to take any sexual assault report that occurred in their jurisdiction. She also was asking why we were not trying to arrest the suspect, however there was no reports regarding this.

At that point I requested a supervisor and Squad 7111, Sgt. Brian BURCH responded. She demand that we take her to the Greyhound bus station and pay for a ticket for her to leave town.

at 13:40 hrs, she again called requesting to make a complaint against officers. She was advised that a supervisor was responding.

At 14:23 hrs she did intentionally cough at the housekeeping workers face again telling him she has COVID.

She was conveyed by Squad 7143 to the Greyhound bus station per 7111. She was provided a community contact card.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Pavlik, Douglas J 024615

04/18/2021

This report is written by P.O. Douglas PAVLIK, assigned to District 7, Early Power Shift.

On 4/17/2021 at approximately 6:12PM, my partner (P.O. Paige CARLONI) and I (Squad 7269) were dispatched to a Battery DV complaint at the address of 6798 W. Appleton Ave. which is in the City and County of Milwaukee. Upon arrival we spoke to the caller/ victim Tyesha B. CROSS (B/F 10/09/2001) who stated her boyfriend Arturo J. CANNON (B/M 04/08/1990) had assaulted her in her motel room#111. CROSS stated CANNON and herself had been at the motel for a few days. CROSS stated CANNON had hit her in the back of the head and shoulders inside their motel room.

CROSS also stated CANNON stole her cell phone and bank cards off of a table inside the room. CROSS stated after the loud argument and CANNON hitting her the manager of the motel kicked them out of their room. CROSS stated CANNON fled the scene and left her at the motel.

Shortly after talking with CROSS she left the scene without telling us and we were unable to get further information regarding the incident.

INTERVIEW WITH HARJINDER SINGH (W/M 4/15/1965)

SINGH stated CANNON checked into their motel room on 4/14/2021 at 8:06PM. SINGH gave me a photocopy of CANNON's Wisconsin ID card. SINGH stated he heard CANNON and CROSS arguing in the room and then kicked them out of their room which was room #111. SINGH stated he only observed verbal arguing nothing physical between CANNON and CROSS.

SINGH was cooperative during our investigation.
