Mr Kovac,

As a riverwest homeowner in my 40s i want to thank you for your support of all ages venues. My husband and I have been in bands since we were teens (we're originally from central illinois) The only real option we had to play shows there was either renting legion halls or doing house shows. Neither are ideal situations for young people. One of the reasons we moved to Milwaukee is our hope for a more supportive art scene in a larger city. While we've found this relatively true in the bar venue aspect I can't say the same for under 21 venues. I truly believe cities need art/music/culture as a basic necessity. I believe it keeps these kids in our city and it gives them outlets to express themselves. We have a daughter now and we intend to stay in MKE. It would be great if she had the opportunity to play all ages venues. thanks, Jenifer A Dixon
