MPS C.A.R.E.S. Components

MPS C.A.R.E.S.

(Community And Recreation Engaging Students) is a comprehensive community outreach and programming initiative with multiple components aimed at improving community conditions for Milwaukee's children, young adults and families.

MPS Gives Back

- Through MPS Gives Back district employees are mobilized to serve the community in two ways:
 - Volunteerism
 - Community presence

Twilight Centers

- October 2016
 - Opened our first three Twilight Centers
- Currently operate six twilight centers
 - North Division, South Division, Washington, Obama, JMAC, Bay View

Youth Mobilization

- Youth Mobilization is purposed to provide youth with opportunities to be civically engaged around issues that are important to them
- Our youth mobilizers affectionately refer to themselves as Youth Crew_{MPS}

Community Wellness Days

- Community Wellness days provide youth and families ages 6 and up with a safe place
- Wellness days offer physical activities and a variety of health resources to families

Midnight Sports League

- The Midnight Sports League is purposed to provide a safe, positive place for young people ages 17-25
- The league provides community resources to participants
- We are currently offering a basketball league at Bradley Tech on Wednesdays and Saturdays

Listening Sessions

- Listening sessions provide opportunities for student and community input
