INVESTIGATIVE NARRATIVE:

This report was dictated by Detective Ronald HARDEN, of the Criminal Investigation Unit/Internal Affairs Division (CIU/IAD), day shift.

In summarizing this investigation the complainant, Terrance HENDERSON, alleged that Officers WAGNER and BOYACK had no valid reason for stopping him and his girlfriend Sierra SHAW. He denies possessing any drugs and believes he was within his rights to resist efforts to be arrested and handcuffed. Also, he believed the officers were trying to "kill me" and bit one officer causing a bleeding wound. He also alleges that the booking officer at District #5, Robert HENRY, slammed him onto the floor and choked him without cause and again believed the officer was going to "kill me", yet HENDERSON remained passive as officers watched but failed to stop HENRY.

Detective Shannon JONES stated in his report relating to his interview with Sierra SHAW that she was completely evasive with her responses to his questions.

In contrast WAGNER and BOYACK related in reports and CIB interviews of stopping HENDERSON and SHAW relative to their assignment. HENDERSON was observed dropping drugs onto the ground and upon taking action to arrest him, SHAW claimed the drugs belonged to her. HENDERSON tried to escape and fought them while back up officers arrived and helped subdue him. HENDERSON continued this conduct even after being handcuffed and placed inside the conveyance wagon.

No officer outside of Officer HENRY is identified as being present when HENDERSON claims he was being choked and Officer HENRY declined to make any statements during an interview with Det. Michael CARLSON.

After my interview with HENDERSON I discovered he provided me with a false home address and phone number for SHAW after learning I would interview her. I was led to concur with Detective JONES' assessment of SHAW and believe that SHAW was not completely truthful in her responses to my questions.

This recent incident was reviewed at the District Attorney's Drug Unit and charges of Possession of Controlled Substance with Intent to Deliver (cocaine) and resisting were issued against HENDERSON. Further, the MPD arrest records show HENDERSON having four previous drug arrests including a Resisting/Obstructing an Officer.

In conclusion of this investigation both HENDERSON and SHAW have displayed a lack of truthfulness and cooperation regarding this complaint and for these reasons this investigation is being cleared as baseless.
