

Dan is owner of The Druml Company, a commercial real estate firm based in Milwaukee, WI, managing over 500,000 square feet of commercial, industrial and residential space, some of which have a Harbor District presence along S. 4th Street and East Lincoln Street. Dan has over 30 years of experience in the residential and commercial restoration and remodeling industry. He served as President of Paul Davis Restoration & Remodeling of Southeast Wisconsin, Fox Valley, East Bay, California and Paul Davis National for several years. Dan also serves as Vice President of Strategic Partnerships at FirstService Brands, creating the sales strategy and development, marketing messages and positioning of the Paul Davis franchise.

Dan is involved in a number of civic activities, currently serving as a board member on the Milwaukee Harbor District. He supports a number of philanthropic causes in medical research and Catholic education and has led fundraising efforts for the Milwaukee Archdiocese, Christ King Catholic Grade School and Cristo Rey Jesuit High School. A native of Wisconsin; born and raised in Milwaukee, Dan has a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Marquette University.