The complainant told the officers he was awakened by the loud music coming from inside the tavern at 3235 W Scott Street. He told the officers that he called the bar and asked them if they could lower the music, and the owner's husband said, "No, you should get your windows insulated, so you don't hear the music." The Patrons of the bar also throw their empty beer bottles on neighbors lawns." He said he has tried to work things out with the bar but they become hostile. The officer spoke to the applicant, who stated she didn't think the music was loud at that time. She also stated she did not talk to anybody "tonight" regarding the music. She thinks the neighbors keep calling the police because of their race. "They are Mexican and the neighbors don't like them."
