LICENSED PREMISE REPORT

Bell, Terry A 029189

07/13/2024

This report was written by P.O. Terry BELL assigned to District Five Squad 5140.

On Saturday, July 13th, 2024, at 1:19 pm, I was dispatched to N 7th Street and W Keefe Ave for a Subject With Weapon incident.

Upon our arrival, I observed a male who identified as the caller arguing in the business with an employee of the business. Other customers were in the business attempting to purchase items.

I spoke to the caller, Dementhis D CARTER (M/B, 07-08-78) who called stating a male subject pulled a gun on him. CARTER stated that the employee of the business pulled a gun on him during an argument. CARTER stated that the employee also choked him.

P.O. PETTY spoke with the accused employee, Jamal I OWAIS (A/M, 01-09-98) and business owner, Mohammad I OWAIS (A/M, 09-11-84) who both stated that CARTER entered the store and upon attempting to purchase a bag of chips, disputed the price of the items. OWAIS stated that CARTER tossed the chips at the counter and attempted to hand OWAIS $1. The chips were listed at .75 cent a bag. OWAIS informed CARTER that his $1 wasn't enough to cover the price of the chips. OWAIS then stated that CARTER went to look at the price then became enraged, stating "Y'all are trying to rob me! The price is .50 cent a bag!" CARTER approached the counter yelling about the price. OWAIS stated that he attempted to snatch the chips from the counter when CARTER yelled "I'll cut your throat!". OWAIS stated that he then attempted to push CARTER back as he grabbed for his firearm. OWAIS stated that he then racked his firearm, leaving the firearm pointed at the floor, and ordered CARTER to leave the store. OWAIS stated that CARTER refused to leave and instead called 9-1-1. OWAIS stated that once he observed that CARTER possessed a phone in his pocket and not a firearm, he placed the firearm back in his pocket.

I spoke with CARTER who stated that he and OWAIS argued over the price of the chips. CARTER stated that within the argument, he threatened to have OWAIS exit the business, and come outside to fight due to personal statements OWAIS made against the family of CARTER. CARTER stated that he tossed his money at the counter, OWAIS tossed it back at him, then proceeded to grab him by his throat. CARTER stated that OWAIS then warned him that if he didn't leave the store, he would shoot him.

P.O. PETTY reviewed the surveillance recording as I interviewed CARTER. P.O. PETTY stated that the account made by OWAIS was accurate with what was depicted in the surveillance recording.

LICENSED PREMISE REPORT

Letteer, David J 016078

10/20/2024

This license premise report is written by PO David LETTEER, assigned to District 5 Day Shift, Sq. 5166.

On 10-19-24 just after 11:51 a.m., I responded to to the shooting, located at 3455 N. Martin Luther King

Milwaukee Police Department

Jr. Dr., Action Food and Liquor, which is a licensed premise in the city of Milwaukee.

Upon arrival, I assisted with retrieving video of this incident. The video that was retrieved showed a customer inside of the store at the checkout counter involved in an argument with the store clerk, Jamil OWIAS, the brother of the business agent. As they continue to argue the customer pulls out a firearm from his pants pocket and attempts to strike the clerk with the gun, but shoots the store clerk, shooting the clerk in the chest. The customer then runs out of the store and leaves in a vehicle. Shortly after you see another employee walking from the back of the store to the front of the store on his phone.

The clerk was located lying on the floor behind the cash register, in the employee area. The Milwaukee Fire Department attempted life saving measures, but the life saving measures were unsuccessful.

As officers and detectives were investigating this incident, the agent of the business, Mohammad OWIAS arrived with friends and family, but due to being angry and visibly shaken about the death of the Jamil, OWIAS's family and friends tried to keep him calm. I was not able to speak to him about the business licenses or about the clerk who was working. I did not look for any licenses, in order to see if they were posted or valid due to how the investigation was proceeding such as location of the body and the limited space in the store with multiple officers and detectives to move around.

Due to the amount of people that were showing up outside of the store, along with talk among those who were there, that people may try rush past officers as the medical examiner was removing the body, it was best to just have the body removed once the investigation was completed and allow OWIAS to enter his store.

I did check LIRA and found that OWIAS does have a valid Class A license, which is set to expire 11/02/2024.

There was also another employee, Martin STENNIS, a cook at the store who was working at the time of the incident. In reading the CAD the caller calls at 11:52 a.m. and tells dispatch he heard shots fired and came out to find his boss shot, non responsive and that the subject is no longer at the store. The employee did stay and did speak to detectives.

This is still an active investigation by CIB, so if any further information is needed, please contact CIB.

End of report.
