The Milwaukee Police Department's investigation regarding this application revealed the following:

1. On 10/12/2019 at 8:53pm officers conducted a license premise check at Rose's Place, 2878 N. 20th St. The officer attempted to open the door and found it locked. He pressed the doorbell next to the door and the bartender buzzed him in. The bartender showed the officers the business licenses and his Class D Operator's license. The bartender stated the business would be open on New Year's Eve with three bartenders. The officer advised to call the police if any problems occur. The officers advised the bartender that the agent would have to explain why the doors are locked.

He did later admit that there were people in the bar. The officers advised him the business does not have a food license and is considered nonessential, so it must be closed by the current order issued by the Governor.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

12/13/2019

This license premise report is written by PO David LETTEER, assigned to District 5 Late Power Shift Tavern Sq. 5468.

On 12/12/19 at 8:53 p.m., I conducted a license premise check of Rose's Place, located at 2878 N. 20th St., which is a license premise in the city of Milwaukee.

Upon walking up to the front door, I attempted to enter the establishment, but the door was locked. There is a door bell next to the door, which when pressed, allowed the bartender to open the door from the bar. I entered the bar and spoke to the bartender Dwayne HARDWICK (Sr.)(b/m 01-/12/61) who has a Class D Operator's license (225234), which is set to expire on 12/31/19. HARDWICK then showed me the current Class B Tavern License (207798), which is valid until 12/03/20.

HARDWICK stated the owner is having health problems and that he is there helping the owner out until she gets back on her feet. He stated he is bartending here, as well as several other taverns, helping out when he can. I observed that HARDWICK was wearing a firearm, along with a pouch containing two magazines. He stated he has his gun with him, along with his CCW permit. He carry's his gun in case something happens, but if something happens, he first tries to defuse the situation with his words.

HARDWICK stated the bar was open, but he had no customers and was in the bar by himself tonight.

I asked him what was going to happen with the bar on New Year's Eve. HARDWICK stated the bar would be open. That it would be 3 bartenders, as well as himself. He stated for New Year's he would have his firearm in the back and if something were to happen, he would try to defuse the situation by talking them down and if that did not work, then he would removed them from the bar.

HARDWICK stated he would be there as security, as well as a bartender for the night.

I informed HARDWICK that if he had problems, to contact the police. I left him my card with the district number, as well as a cell number that is being used for the night and that if something happens or if something is about to happen, to call the police and let us help the bar. I informed HARDWICK that the agent would have to explain to the license committee why the doors are locked and a buzzer is used to open the door. HARDWICK stated he understood.

HARDWICK stated he would call the police if needed and welcomed us into the bar during the night on New Year's.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Ferrante, Nicolas R 029424

04/19/2020

This report is written by P.O. Nicolas FERRANTE, assigned to District 5, Late Shift.

On Friday, April 17 at approximately 1:05 AM while on routine patrol, my partner (P.O. SLUKA) and I observed 4 subjects exiting Rose's Place a tavern located at 2878 N 20th St located in the City and County of Milwaukee, WI. Due to the Governor Ever's current safer at home order, and this business not holding a food vendor license or signage offering any type of food delivery or pick-up we performed a Business Check (BC- C.)

It should also be noted that there were 3 vehicles parked within close proximity of this tavern on the street.

The front door the business was locked upon our arrival, after knocking a William PHILLIPS (B/M 9-29-71), who identified himself as the manager answered the door. PHILIPS was cooperative throughout the business check, and provided all information needed. PHILLIPS initially stated that it was only him and 1 employee in the bar doing "some cleaning." I asked PHILLIPS if he would allow us to enter inside the premise and he allowed us in, with no issue.

Inside the tavern my partner and I observed fully inflated balloons, throughout the bar. It appeared to be as if the bar was cleaning up after throwing a party. At this point PHILLIPS did state to my partner and I he did have a "couple" people in the bar earlier prior to our arrival. PHILLIPS was able to provide me with all licenses issued and they were posted above the bar and fully visible.

At this point I advised PHILLIPS that due to his business being considered non essential, he should abide by the current Governors safer at home order. PHILLIPS states he understands this, and will not allow patrons in the bar again.
