REVIEWED/APPROVED BY:
Assistant Chief Craig Sarnow
DATE: October 13, 2025

ACTION: Amends General Order 2025-07 (February 16, 2025)

WILEAG STANDARD(S): 1.3.2, 1.6.1

The Milwaukee Police Department shall be organized as indicated below, effective November 23, 2025.

The Chief of Police reserves the right to prescribe other duties or responsibilities upon any divisional component as deemed necessary.
(WILEAG 1.3.2)

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF POLICE

This office shall consist of the Chief of Police and such support staff as deemed necessary and shall include the following components:

A. CHIEF OF STAFF

This component shall consist of a senior staff person who attends to the highest level administrative tasks of the Office of the Chief, including operations, strategic development, implementation, evaluation, intergovernmental relations, and staff management.

1. Office of Community Outreach and Engagement

This component shall be responsible for increasing the number of community members engaged with police, bridging the gap between the resources of the department and the potential audiences who can benefit from said resources, as identified in the police strategic plan. This component works strategically and collaboratively with the Public Information Office to increase community awareness of police services and to build the perception of police relevance in their lives. This component shall be responsible for providing services that assist the community in preventing crime and building relationships through educational programs, partnerships and collaboration with community-based organizations. This component augments the department through the Citizen Academy, Police Auxiliary Program and by connecting youth in the community with the Milwaukee Police Athletic League (MPAL) and services that promote education, develops social skills and reduces the likelihood of future involvement in criminal activity. This component shall be responsible for executing the Chief of Police's community engagement strategy.

2. Office of Management Analysis and Planning

This component shall be responsible for research, analysis, project management, and strategic planning for the department. This component shall also enter into communication and correspondence with other organizations, retain certain records, conduct research, and secure funding for department initiatives under the direction of the Chief of Police.

a. License Investigation Unit

This component shall be responsible for the investigation and processing of city license applications, requests and renewals as well as serving as the central repository for records and reports pertaining to license investigations. This component shall also appear as the Chief of Police's representative before the common council's licensing committees.

b. Performance Measures

This component shall be responsible for developing the department's administrative and operational performance measures to be presented at regular meetings of the command staff. This component shall maintain detailed knowledge of the department's information systems, reporting processes, and crime analysis, and shall conduct research and provide statistical data and information to the Chief of Police upon request.

c. Policy, Research, and Development

This component shall be responsible for planning, coordinating, preparing, and publishing the department's standard operating procedures, code of conduct, operating instructions, annual reports, policies, guidelines, forms, and other information intended for department-wide dissemination. This does not preclude commanding officers of other work locations from establishing policy and disseminating department-wide information pursuant to their specialties and official duties. This component shall conduct research and surveys, corresponding with other agencies and organizations on behalf of the Chief of Police for this purpose. This component shall also conduct feasibility studies, coordinating with vendors regarding initiatives, uniforms, equipment, and software.

d. Strategic and Administrative Analysis

This component shall be responsible for collecting, collating, analyzing, disseminating, and evaluating crime data to identify emerging trends, patterns, and changes in criminal activity, using mapping and other analytical software. This component shall prepare data used to make recommendations for deployment and resource allocation. This component shall measure and forecast long-term public safety activity related to problem solving, intervention, and crime reduction efforts. This component maintains statistical reports that detail the results of analysis, conclusions, and recommendations; and prepares periodic statistical reports for both the executive command staff and district commanders.

3. Public Information Office

This component shall be responsible for promoting the dissemination of information concerning the department and its activities to the citizens of Milwaukee through all available media, including the department's web site, as well as coordinating internal communications and other activities as directed by the Chief of Police. This component shall also be responsible for graphic design services.

B. OFFICE OF RISK MANAGEMENT

This component shall be responsible for assisting in the coordination, development and completion of compliance reports related to lawsuits and settlements as well as serve as project manager for settlements. This component shall be the liaison with key officials, to include but not limited to the City Attorney's Office, District Attorney's Office, U.S. Attorney's Office and other city departments. This component shall be responsible for providing guidance on best practices to mitigate department risk/liability. The Office of Risk Management shall include the following component:

1. Compliance Management Section

This component shall be responsible for conducting scheduled audits related to traffic stops, field interviews and no-action encounters to ensure compliance with state and federal law as well as MPD department policies, procedures, and standards. This component shall be responsible for managing the department's Wisconsin Law Enforcement Accreditation Group Accreditation Standards (WILEAG) accreditation efforts, which include the production and cataloging of required proofs. Additionally, this component shall be responsible for conducting scheduled and directed audits of departmental systems, operations, and assets conducted in accordance with the United States Government Accountability Office's Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards. This component shall also be responsible for monitoring Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) compliance.

PATROL BUREAU (WILEAG 1.6.1)

The Patrol Bureau provides for the preservation of the public peace, the protection of life and property, the detection and apprehension of persons engaging in illegal activity, and the enforcement of laws and ordinances.

K. COMMUNITY RESOURCE DIVISION

This component is comprised of the School Resource Officer program and Crisis Assessment Response Team.

1. School Resource Officers

This component shall be responsible for providing educational resources, law enforcement information and advice, and serving as a positive law enforcement presence within Milwaukee Public Schools. School Resource Officers shall collaborate with Milwaukee Public School staff, parents and students using community-oriented policing philosophies to build relationships, solve problems and enforce the law.

2. Crisis Assessment Response Team

This component is a collaborative effort between the Milwaukee Police Department and Psychiatric Crisis Service (PCS). The component is comprised of crisis team clinicians and police officers and shall be responsible for responding to situations when police intervention may be needed for individuals with mental illness who are in crisis.

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION BUREAU (CIB)

The Criminal Investigation Bureau investigates and manages criminal cases in the City of Milwaukee.

A. HOMICIDE DIVISION

This component shall be responsible for the investigation, follow up and case management of all homicides, suspicious deaths, in custody deaths, and critical incidents as defined by department policy.

1. Cold Case Unit

This component shall be responsible for the review of unsolved homicides or suspected homicides that were fully investigated and yet remained unsolved or not cleared due to lack of further investigatory leads. This component shall review these cases, research and develop new investigatory leads, and apply new techniques or technology that may have emerged since the crime occurred.

B. GUN VIOLENCE DIVISION

This component shall be responsible for the investigation, follow-up and case management of all non-fatal shootings, and serious felony assault offenses.

C. MAJOR CRIMES DIVISION

This component shall be responsible for the investigation, follow up and case management of the most serious robbery related offenses (including bank robberies, carjackings, case management robberies, or other robbery related offenses) and shall generally be responsible for the investigation, follow up and case management of felony property crimes (including burglary, theft, forgery, identity theft, and arson).

D. SENSITIVE CRIMES DIVISION

This component shall be responsible for the investigation, follow up and case management of family violence, sexual assault, interference with custody, crimes against children, critical missing persons (to include Amber Alerts, Green Alerts, and Silver Alerts), human trafficking and other matters of a sensitive nature.

1. Domestic Violence High-Risk Team (DVHRT)

This component is responsible for identifying and addressing domestic violence cases at the highest risk for lethality in order to maximize safety for survivors and accountability for offenders. This component shall work with the multidisciplinary team of partners to discuss intervention and recommendations based on criteria indicating exceptionally high risk for lethality. This component is responsible for teaching, training, conducting outreach, conducting follow up, conducting special operations, working in liaison with district domestic violence liaison officers, reviewing high risk cases, making recommendations, and any other specified tasks required by supervision.

E. FORENSICS DIVISION

This component shall provide a support function through the collection, management and analysis of evidence and the operation of identification systems and criminal records.

1. Criminal Records/ Applicant Section

This component is responsible for maintaining all department identification systems, including AFIS, ILS and IWS, portable identification equipment, as well as the maintenance of criminal records, criminal history and all 10-prints. This component shall also provide fingerprinting services to City of Milwaukee applicants and city licensees.

2. Document Section

This component shall be responsible for the examination and identification of questioned documents.

3. Evidence Management Unit

This component shall be responsible for all evidence submitted to the Wisconsin State Crime Lab for further analysis, management of latent print identifications, as well as follow-up through the Evidence Management Database.

4. Forensic Evidence Lab

This component shall be responsible for all evidence brought to the Forensic Lab for examination, processing and recovery of latent fingerprints and DNA evidence, and all other evidence collection and forensic photography.

5. Forensic Imaging Lab

This component shall be responsible for storing, maintaining and retaining photographic evidence, courtroom presentation of photographic images, and providing photo identification cards for access to MPD facilities.

6. Forensic Investigator Section

This component shall be responsible for providing on-scene examination, processing, recovery and comparison of latent fingerprints and DNA evidence, as well as all other evidence collection and forensic photography.

7. Forensic Video Section

This component shall be responsible for the examination, on-scene recovery and retrieval of digital and computerized evidence and preparation of forensic video evidence for criminal investigations and public release to media outlets.

8. Latent Print Section

This component shall be responsible for the analysis, comparison, evaluation, and maintenance of latent and unidentified fingerprints for investigative and identification purposes.

F. FUSION DIVISION

This component shall be principally responsible for serving the intelligence operations of the MPD and also enhancing and supporting those agencies in its regional area of responsibility. The Fusion Division shall consist of the following: Southeastern Wisconsin Threat Analysis Center (STAC), a Tactical Analysis Unit, a Real-Time Events Center, a Crime Gun Intelligence Center (CGIC), a Hazardous Devices Unit (HDU), Virtual Investigations Video Analytics Unit (VIVA), Dignitary Protection / Election Fraud Investigations, and High Technology Unit.

1. Crime Gun Intelligence Center (CGIC)

This component partners with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory Bureau, Wisconsin Department of Corrections, Milwaukee County District Attorney's Office and the United States Attorney's Office, and operational entities to prevent gun violence through the consistent production of timely, precise, and actionable intelligence concerning crime guns and armed violent offenders for investigation and targeted enforcement. This component also administers the department's ShotSpotter Program.

2. Dignitary Protection / Election Fraud Investigations

This component shall be responsible for the planning and protection of dignitaries while visiting the City of Milwaukee. They will work closely with United States Department of Homeland Security and other components as necessary to properly prepare and manage dignitary safety. Members assigned to this unit must be able to obtain and maintain a security clearance from the United States Department of Homeland Security and/or the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This component is also responsible for conducting long term election fraud related investigations and protective intelligence investigations as well as complex financial crimes investigations alongside the United States Secret Service. This component is also tasked with foreign influence operations investigations and cyber related matters while working closely with Department of Homeland Security Cyber and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA).

3. High Technology Unit

This component shall be responsible for the analysis of all computer components, peripherals, or other electronic evidence that is necessary to support a criminal case. Members assigned to this unit are also responsible for Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) investigations and serve on the State of Wisconsin Cyber Response Team which is tasked with large scale cyber investigations.

4. Real-Time Events Center

This component shall provide officers and detectives with up-to-date crime information using law enforcement databases and other intelligence sources for law enforcement response and proactive policing efforts to prevent, deter, and reduce crime in the City of Milwaukee.

5. Southeastern Wisconsin Threat Analysis Center (STAC)

The Southeastern Wisconsin Threat Analysis Center (STAC) contains a multi-jurisdictional financial crimes unit and is associated with the Federal Bureau of Investigation Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF). The STAC's operational area consists of eight counties in southeastern Wisconsin: Milwaukee, Racine, Ozaukee, Washington, Waukesha, Jefferson, Walworth, and Kenosha. The STAC also provides community outreach throughout STAC's area of operation regarding homeland security topics. STAC collaborates with a real-time events center and provides officers and detectives with up-to-date crime information for law enforcement response and proactive policing efforts to prevent, deter, and reduce crime in the City of Milwaukee.

6. Tactical Analysis Unit

This component shall provide investigative case analysis to members assigned to conduct investigations to assist in the clearing of incidents through criminal apprehension. This component shall be responsible for providing tactical analysis to all operational entities on a consistent basis by addressing existing crime patterns and identifying emerging crime trends. This component utilizes data driven, analytical processes to provide intelligence that is action orientated and informs decision making within the department.

7. Virtual Investigations Video Analytics Unit

This component shall be responsible for using open source social media and other online digital media to support cyber operations and police operations throughout MPD, by providing investigative leads, situational awareness, and actionable intelligence to operational entities.

G. SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION

This component shall be responsible for coordinating and focusing criminal justice resources (local, state, and federal) on the investigation, arrest, and prosecution of prolific offenders of violence. This will be accomplished through the enforcement of illegal firearms and narcotics laws, as well as investigative follow up generated by leads from the Fusion Division - Crime Gun Intelligence Center. This component shall also be responsible for the arrest of wanted felony suspects and fugitives from justice, and the investigation of suspicious deaths when overdose is probable and actionable intelligence exists to enforce narcotic laws against a suspected distributor.

1. Extradition Unit

This component works closely with other state and federal law enforcement agencies in the return of apprehended fugitives from justice.

2. Fugitive Apprehension

This component is responsible for arresting individuals wanted on outstanding felony warrants and locating other subjects who are not in warrant status but wanted for serious crimes.

3. High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA)

This component shall be responsible for the strategic long-term investigation of large-scale drug trafficking organizations utilizing a multi-agency, multi-jurisdictional approach through the North Central-High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) program. The members assigned to HIDTA will work in conjunction with local, state and federal partnering agencies and task forces.
