Subject: 2501 W North Ave

I am reaching out to you because we received a letter that a liquor license might be permitted at 2501 W North Ave. We as a family are requesting that this does not get approved. This is a neighborhood with many small children on every block. We have St Ann's across the street, we have Starns ECC 3-5 year school 1 block away, 2 churches within 1 block from premises and they want to allow liquor consumption during hours where all these children are present. We also have Matt Talbidge Lodge 1 block away that is a rehab center for men. This will also give them the opportunity to come in and consume alcohol which can trigger them back into addiction. In our society today with an opportunity to become intoxicated, may arise more crime. The area that is in question is already a high crime area and they want to add fuel to the fire. We are objecting the liquor license.
