To whom it may concern:

I a current occupant at 6023 N Milwaukee, WI object to a new location premise address 3824 W Florist Ave, due to the current store Home Run Foods which also sells a Class A Malt beverage. Also there are at least 3 other Malt liquor beverage stores within a 3 mile radius. Most importantly there is a daycare across the street from this premise address. This daycare holds 1st and 2nd shift children which also is a danger and safety hazard. Further more there's trash from constituents of the Home Run Foods store that's currently there. I just don't think it's a good idea to have a malt liquor store in the middle of neighborhood block, and I will continue to contest.

Sincerely a Concerned Neighbor

To Whom It May Concern,

As a resident in the area, and a neighbor of Home Run Foods, I strongly object to granting a new Class A Malt and Food Dealer License to Home Run Foods.

They do serve as a convince to many residence needing an occasional grocery item.

My objection to an additional license is that they already sell these items and the neighbor reflects that in more trash and litter being thrown onto our lawns and into the streets. They attract panhandlers and there has been an increase in Public Urination in the alley behind the store.

People purchasing beer walk down the street drinking it out of the bagged containers.

They are located next door to a Child Day Care Center that certainly does not need this kind of activity!

There have been many times in the past that people have dumped trash onto the property at the rear of the store (tires, building materials, etc). Instead of them disposing of it into their dumpster's, they opt to either put it directly into the alley or the street. As a result, we as residents have had additional expenses in many flat tires!

I do not think there needs to be another license granted to Awawda's Foods.

Sincerely,

Thursday, June 25, 2015

On Saturday, July 19, 2014, I was assigned to the Wisconsin WINS Youth Tobacco Initiative, which checks area vendors for age compliance tobacco purchases. I was working with Lakinya C. WILSON, B/F, 06-21-97, of 3860 N. 80th St., phone #759-9861, who is 17 years old and not of legal age to purchase tobacco. A photo of WILSON was taken at the beginning of the assignment for identification.

At about 11:15 AM, WILSON entered the BP gas station located at 807 W. Atkinson Ave. and purchased two Swisher Sweets regular cigars for $1.00. WILSON provided a description of the cashier that sold her the tobacco. I entered the store and identified the cashier as Diane STOWERS, B/F, 10-13-55. STOWERS is the owner/licensee of the store. STOWERS stated she knew why I was there. STOWERS admitted that she sold tobacco to WILSON. STOWERS stated she should not have sold to the little girl.

The licensee for the BP gas station was STOWERS. STOWERS was issued a citation for adult sell tobacco to person under 18.

This report was written by PO Michael WALKER, assigned to District Five, Community Prosecution Unit.

On Sunday, 12/28/2014, at approximately 6:03 pm, while assigned to squad 5264, I along with squad 5227 (PO Jamie ROSADO) responded to a shots fired complaint at 3550 N. 9th Street (alley).

Upon arrival PO ROSADO was able to locate two 9mm Luger casings (fired) at the approximate address of 3548 N. 9th street in the middle of the alley. Upon checking the area I observed a video surveillance camera on the rear of the BP Gas Station at 807 W Atkinson Street. This camera appeared to be directed towards the alley rear of 3500 N 9th Street, where these fired casings were recovered. I went inside the BP station to try to view this surveillance camera. I spoke to the Station Owner, who identified herself as Diane STOWERS (B/F 10/13/55). STOWERS stated at approximately 6:00 pm she was working behind the counter at the Gas Station when she heard a loud "POP" come from outside. STOWERS stated gas station patrons outside also took notice of this "POP", causing some of them to run into the station store. STOWERS stated based on everyone's reaction outside, she suspected this "POP" to be gunshot. STOWERS stated that she never called the police to report this incident. I asked STOWERS if I could view the recorded surveillance from the store cameras. STOWERS stated that she needed access to her laptop computer to view the recorded footage. STOWERS stated her laptop was currently at home.

At 7:59 pm, I was informed by dispatch that a shooting victim was at Froedtert Hospital with a suspected gunshot wound to his foot. A subsequent investigation revealed that this victim was shot while at the BP Gas Station at 807 W Atkinson Ave at approximately 6:00 pm while pumping gas. The victim also stated he was speaking with a store employee (a cook) in the station lot and the time he was shot. The victim stated that this employee took off running when the shots were being fired.

When Detective Michael SLOMCZEWSKI went back to the Station that evening to review of the store video surveillance, STOWERS was able to produce the laptop that she initially stated that she did not have and allowed Detective SLOMCZEWSKI to view the recorded footage. Upon viewing this recorded footage it was confirmed that the victim was in the station lot with two store employees at the time of this shooting incident: a front door man identified on scene as Richard I QUARLES (B/M 1/9/44), and a subject identified by STOWERS as "Michael WATKINS" who is attempting to open a food counter inside this gas station called Senas. Neither of these employees called police to report this incident or attempt to contacted the police regarding being witnesses to this shooting incident.

This report was written by PO Michael WALKER, assigned to District Five, Community Prosecution Unit.

On Friday, January 9, 2015 squad 5264 (PO Cory LOPEZ and myself) conducted follow-up on a Food Dealer License investigation at the BP Gas Station at 807 W Atkinson Ave. A license check on the LIRA system only showed a valid Food Dealer License issued to the primary licensee of the Gas Station, Diane STOWERS.

At this location we made contact with a subject identified as Antonio J SPENCER (B/M 12/28/79) of 2751 N 2nd Street, 265-6106. SPENCER stated that he is the co-owner of the hot food counter inside the gas station with Michael WATKINS. SPENCER stated that he and WATKINS took over the food counter from the Gas Station owner (Diane STOWERS) on a trial basis. I informed SPENCER that he did not have a Food Dealer License under his or WATKINS' name. SPENCER informed me that STOWERS was allowing them to run a second business under her current Food Dealer License for 60 days until they decided to get their own Food Dealer License. SPENCER stated that they have been running this food counter for the last five weeks, which includes buying all the food, preparing meals, and serving customers.

The primary Licensee Diane STOWERS was on scene during this investigation. STOWERS confirmed that they she has been allowing SPENCER and WATKINS to run the food counter under her license. SPENCER stated she consulted with her attorney who told her that this was legal.

I forwarded this information to the City of Milwaukee License Division for follow up.
