Dear Attorney Spencer and Mr. Baldwin:

This correspondence will serve as an appeal and request for a hearing in relation to the above referenced matter. This request is based on your May 20, 2021 correspondence denying liability for the incident that occurred on January 26, 2021 when the City of Milwaukee's fire truck damaged my Acura resulting in $3,211.92 in damage.

In relations to this hearing, I will be subpoenaing the following witnesses:

- the driver of the fire truck for the date of the incident
- each and every member of the fire department on the fire truck on the date of the incident
- the officer that issued the ticket in this matter
- other witnesses with direct and indirect knowledge of or about this incident

In addition, I will issuing a subpoena from the records custodian for the police department to include:

- any and all documents related to traffic citations issued by the Milwaukee Police department for the last ten years
- any and all documents related to the traffic citations issued by the officer in this incident
- the human resources records and hard card of the officer who issued the citation in this incident
- any documentation used by MPD that references the breakdown of tickets issued by MPD in the area where this incident occurred and race of all individuals that have received tickets from officers in the area of this incident

I also anticipate using any and all documentation regarding biased policing within the MPD including the CJI report dated March of 2021. If opposing counsel will not stipulate to the receipt of this documentation (specifically this report), we will then subpoena the executive director of the FPC to authenticate the document and its receipt by the City through the FPC.

Finally, I will be subpoenaing records from MFD regarding incidents/accidents that have occurred in the area of my incident for the last 5 years. Also, documents that outline each and every traffic incident this specific vehicle and driver has been involved in the last 10 years.

Please outline for me the appropriate procedure for such subpoenas.

As for my availability, I will not be available until some time after September 15th.

Thank You.

Sincerely,

Youssouf Komara

Re: Claim for Damages

February 10, 2021

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the Instructions for Filing a Claim Against the City of Milwaukee, enclosed please find the information regarding the claim that I am filing:

Date of Incident: Tuesday, January 26, 2021

Type of Incident: Automobile collision

Damage: Automobile

Medical claim (right leg)

Time: 4:50 PM

City: Milwaukee

County: Milwaukee

Damages: Estimates to be submitted
Medical to be determined

Description of Incident:

While traveling on 23rd and Vliet going westbound, I heard fire truck sirens behind me. I immediately pulled over and came to a complete stop. The fire truck came behind me and then made a right turn onto 23rd street. The fire truck turned in front me at the corner of Vliet and 23rd. As it was turning, the fire truck smashed the left corner of my car and damaged the front of the driver side of my car including the bumper, hood, and headlights. I also hit my right leg against the console in the car.

I will submit estimates for the car and medical expenses incurred shortly.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss further.

Sincerely,
