Dear City Clerk,

This letter is being filed as an appeal of the above referenced case.

A denial of Mr. Kuykendoll's claim was included in the enclosed letter on January 20, 2011. Although addressed to counsel, it was not received. A telephone call to Mr. Overholt on February 9, 2011 led to learning about the denial. He faxed the document to me and I submit the faxed document for this appeal.

NOTICE OF CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY OF MILWAUKEE Of JOE KUYKENDOLL

CITY CLERK
ATTN: CLAIMS
200 E. Wells Street, Room 205
Milwaukee, WI 53202-3567

Pursuant to Section 893.80(1), JOE KUYKENDOLL files this claim against the city of Milwaukee for monetary damages related to unauthorized destruction of personal property.

On July 20, 2010, the Milwaukee Police Department called Mr. Kuykendoll to state that his car, had been “junked”, per Department of Motor Vehicle records. When the PSSI was asked about additional information, Mr. Kuykendoll was informed that all the paperwork related to the “junking” of the vehicle was lost. This event gave rise to his claim against the city.

On March 13, 2010 Mr. Kuykendoll reported his vehicle as stolen to the Milwaukee Police Department (report 10-072-0073 and see attached police report 10-073-0118, suppl. No.1). Mr. Kuykendoll informed the police that he believed that his adult son (who was living with him temporarily) took the car and other property from his home as Mr. Kuykendoll. slept. Both sets of car keys were missing when Mr. Kuykendoll discovered that the car was taken..

On March 14, 2010, the Milwaukee Police Department called Mr. Kuykendoll and reported that the vehicle was found and that it was located at 753 S. 22nd street. Mr. Kuykendoll was advised to pick up the car. The police did not mention securing or confiscating the car, or having it towed to the tow lot.

On March 14, 2010, Mr. Kuykendoll went to the address the police provided to him to retrieve his car but it was not at the address. He called the police about the location of the car and that it was not in the location they told him was found. Mr. Kuykendoll was told by police to return to his home and to re-report the theft of the vehicle. Mr. Kuykendoll followed the police directions and did re-report the theft. (see attached police report 10-073-0118, suppl. No.1).

On June 14, 2010 the Milwaukee Police Department wrote a report that the vehicle was listed as stolen per the NCIC data bank and that it was “junked” per the State of Wisconsin Department of Transportation records. Mr. Kuykendoll was not told this information nor that a report was written until he was called on July 20, 2010—fully five weeks after the report was written and nearly four months after his original report. Despite his inquiry, he was not provided with any additional information nor explanation about the vehicle, its “junking” the delay in notification and any recourse regarding the theft, investigation of the theft, negligent police actions that allowed the automobile to be removed from the location the police found it in March, or the negligent actions of the police that allowed authorization for "junking" it and the negligent delay by the police in notifying Mr. Kuykendoll about the car being "junked" and failure to respond to his questions about economic recovery of the loss he incurred..

Mr. Kuykendoll has suffered economic income loss related to the junking of this car. The theft of the car and subsequent failure of the police to secure the car when it was found and to prevent its junking has affected Mr. Kuykendoll's income. He is a "visitor," hired by the Social Development Commission to check in on "shut-ins" in their homes at locations all over Milwaukee. He receives a $20.00 stipend per visit. Because he was without his car he could not get to some of his clients' homes and incurred hardship and additional costs getting to some of his clients' homes via mass transportation.

Mr. KUYKENDOLL 's address is 520 North 20th street #213
Milwaukee, WI 53233
Telephone: 414- 937-2318

The vehicle is a 1994 Mercury TOP, Sedan , two door in excellent condition. (see attached)	valued	$2,065.00
two used tires in the trunk	value for sale	75.00
one "The Club" security device	value	40.00
The forgone income from Mr. Kuykendoll 's SDC job, directly related to he being deprived of the use of his car is $600.00.		600.00
Total		$ 2,780.00

Despite being asked, the police did not provide Mr. Kuykendoll with information regarding a claim against the city and therefore he has incurred attorney costs as well.

Mr. Kuykendoll is represented by Attorney Hannah C. Dugan

This report is filed by PSSI Dale M. JACKSON.

After reviewing 10-072-0073 and 10-073-0118 which are both Auto Theft reports on the same auto I contacted the owner/complainant Joe L. KUYKENDOLL regarding his complaint. He related that he had reported his vehicle as stolen and District #2 of the MPD located it. Mr. KUYKENDOLL said when he went to recover it the car was no longer there, and re-reported it. He did say he had a photocopy of his title in his glove box in case he needed it to prove ownership.

Mr. KUYKENDOLL upon questioning denied having junked his auto. I informed him that I had checked with the Department of Motor Vehicles in Madison and found that they listed the vehicle as being junked April 26, 2010. The DMV no longer had the original paper work showing the person who junked the auto etc.
