Hey Maribel,

I just did Maricela's CPTED on January 2nd (her daughter translated spanish/english). Maricela and her husband actually own 1728 W Mitchell St. Maricela stated that her husband has to remodel the building and won't be "restaurant ready" until the end of 2026, and she plans on hosting bands at the restaurant, and it looks like she has some involvement with promoting bands that played at the Buddhist Temple (or Templo Budista as it's promoted on social media). The New Year's Eve event appears to be a private/family event, and there weren't any calls for service that evening. Fyi, Maricela is only Spanish speaking.

Good afternoon,

I just spoke with Ms. Antunez and advised her about the complaint. She stated the only events she's had at the building is her family's New Year's Eve party and her daughter's quinceanera. We advised her that renting out the space without occupancy/assembly hall can lead to citations and possibly affect her license application. Ms. Antunez stated that there could be confusion about the use of her space because she allows the church across the street to use her parking lot during services, so neighbors could believe that some of the church goers are coming from her building.
